Teachers are People, Too

Some interesting facts from the lives of teachers before they were teachers

Ms. Slaughter

When I got in trouble the worst punishment my parents could give me was that I would have to ride the school bus. We lived in NY and they were those big yellow "cheese buses" and my stop was on a main street so my friends would drive by while I was waiting and laugh & honk at me.

Mr. Naganuma

I worked for the rock band Van Halen when they owned Q105 radio in Portland.

Mr. Jackson

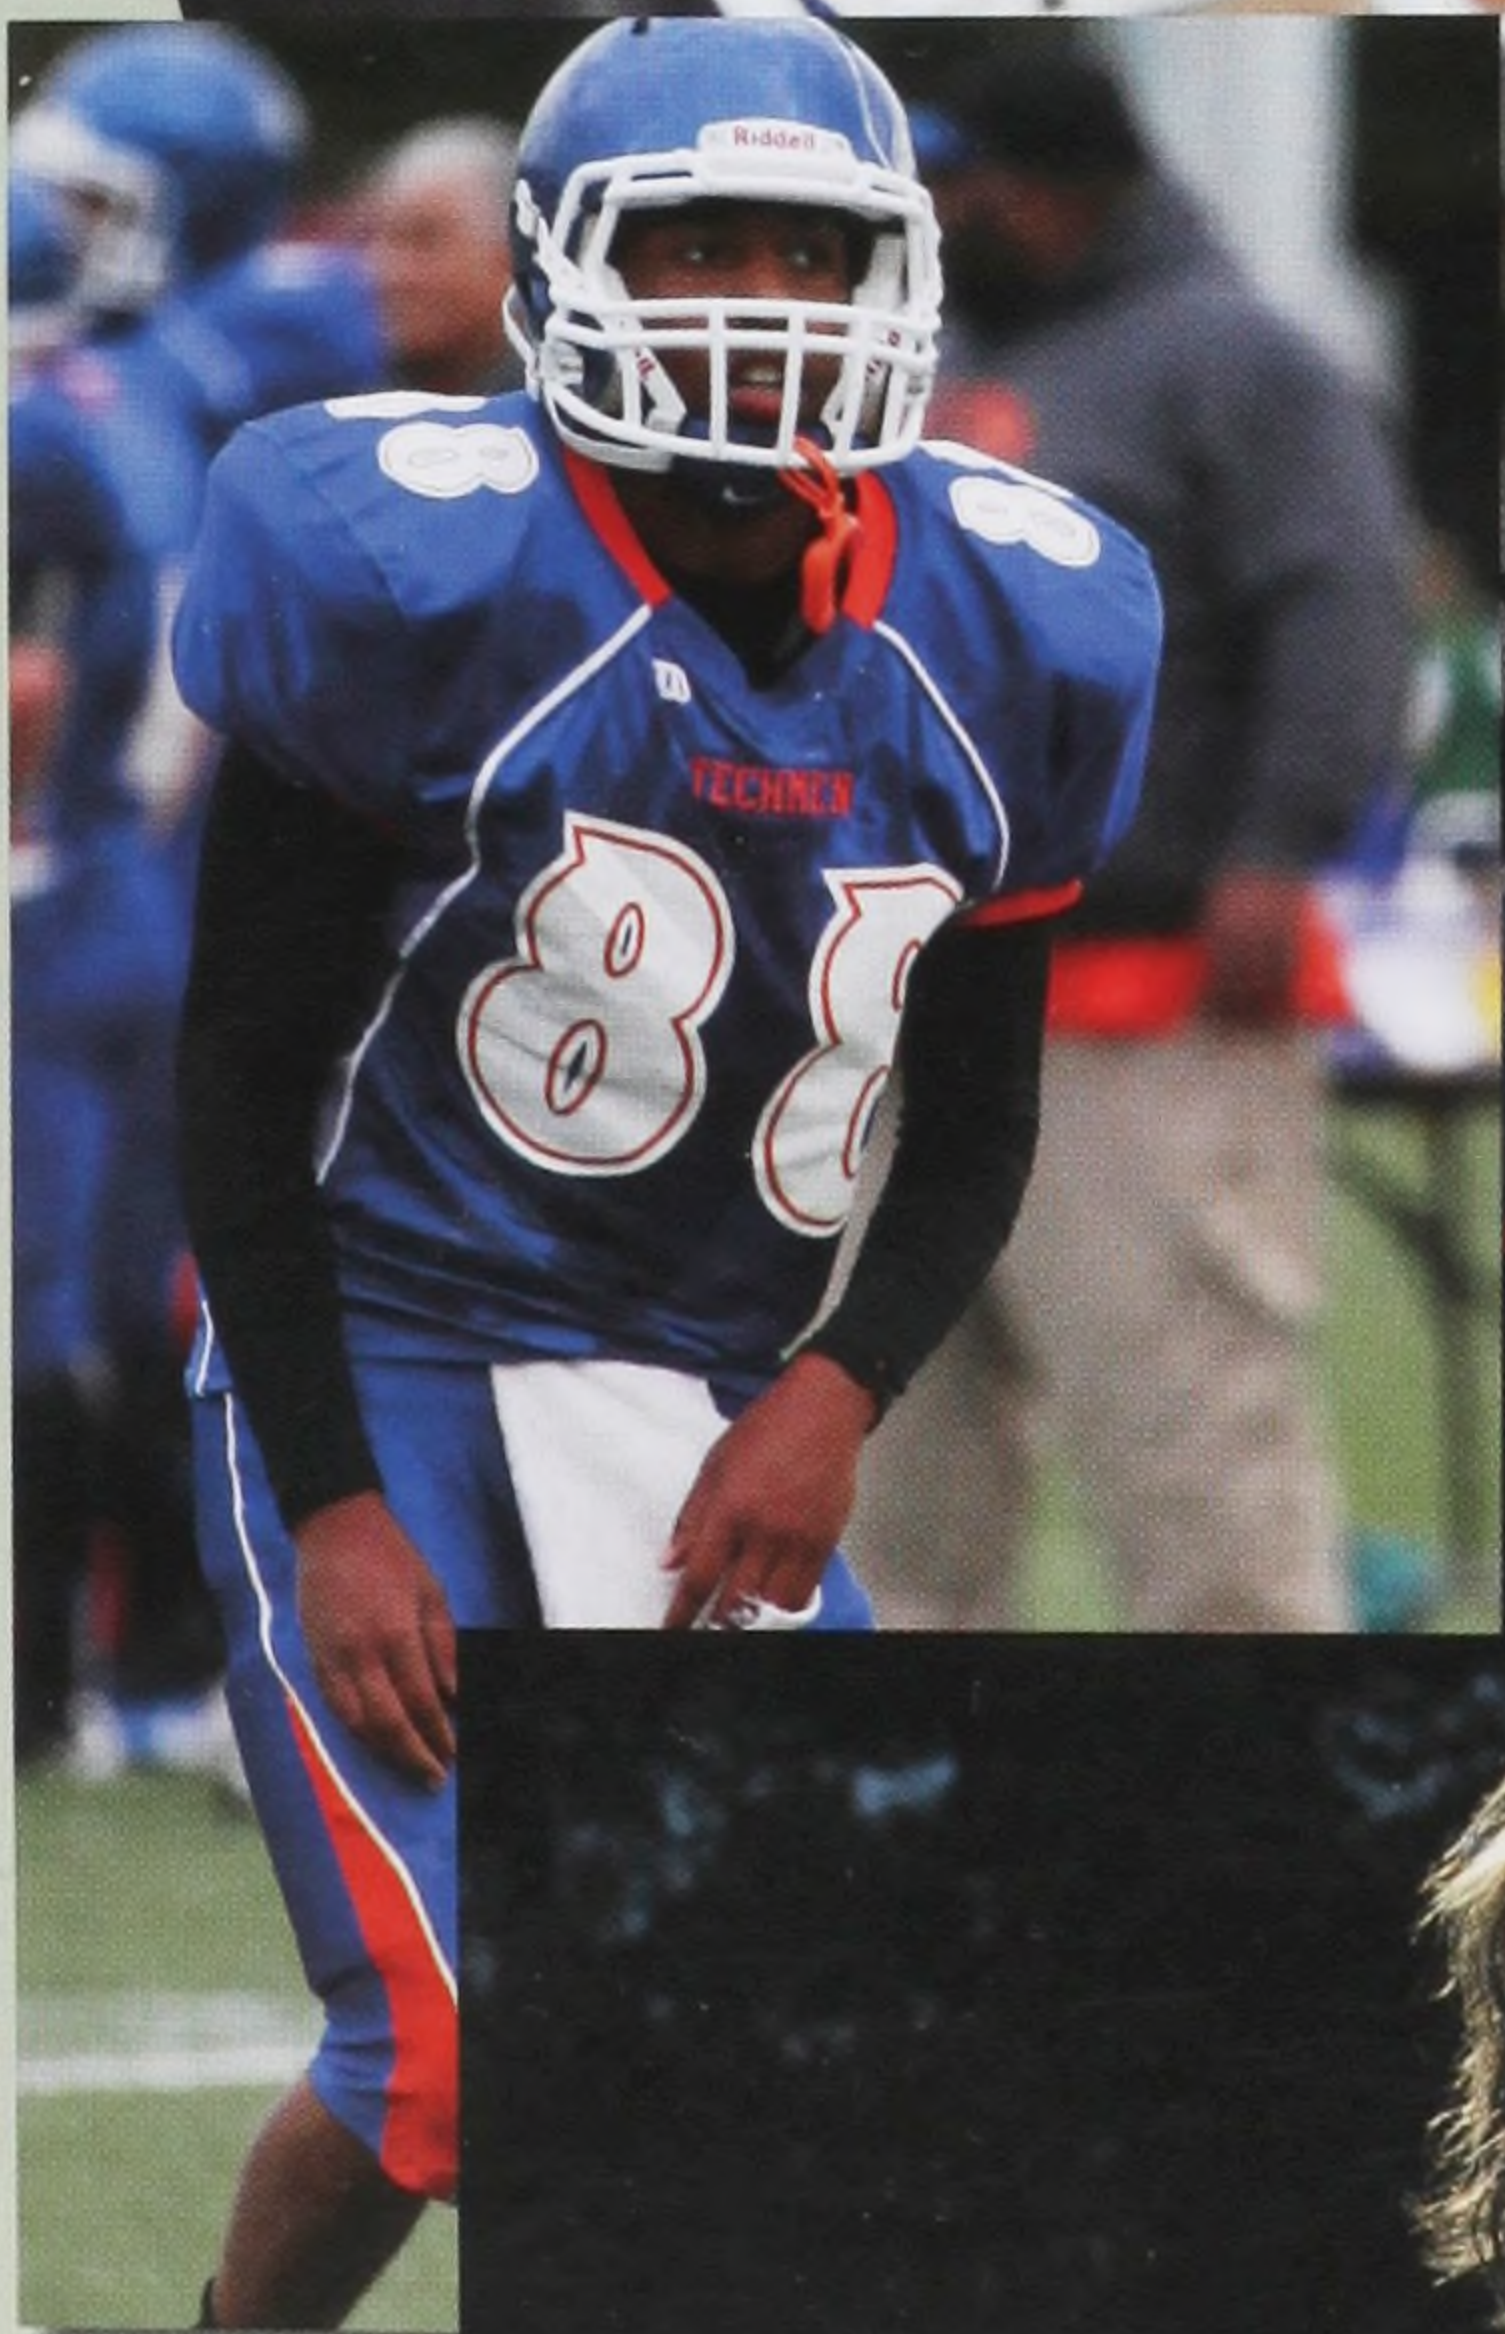

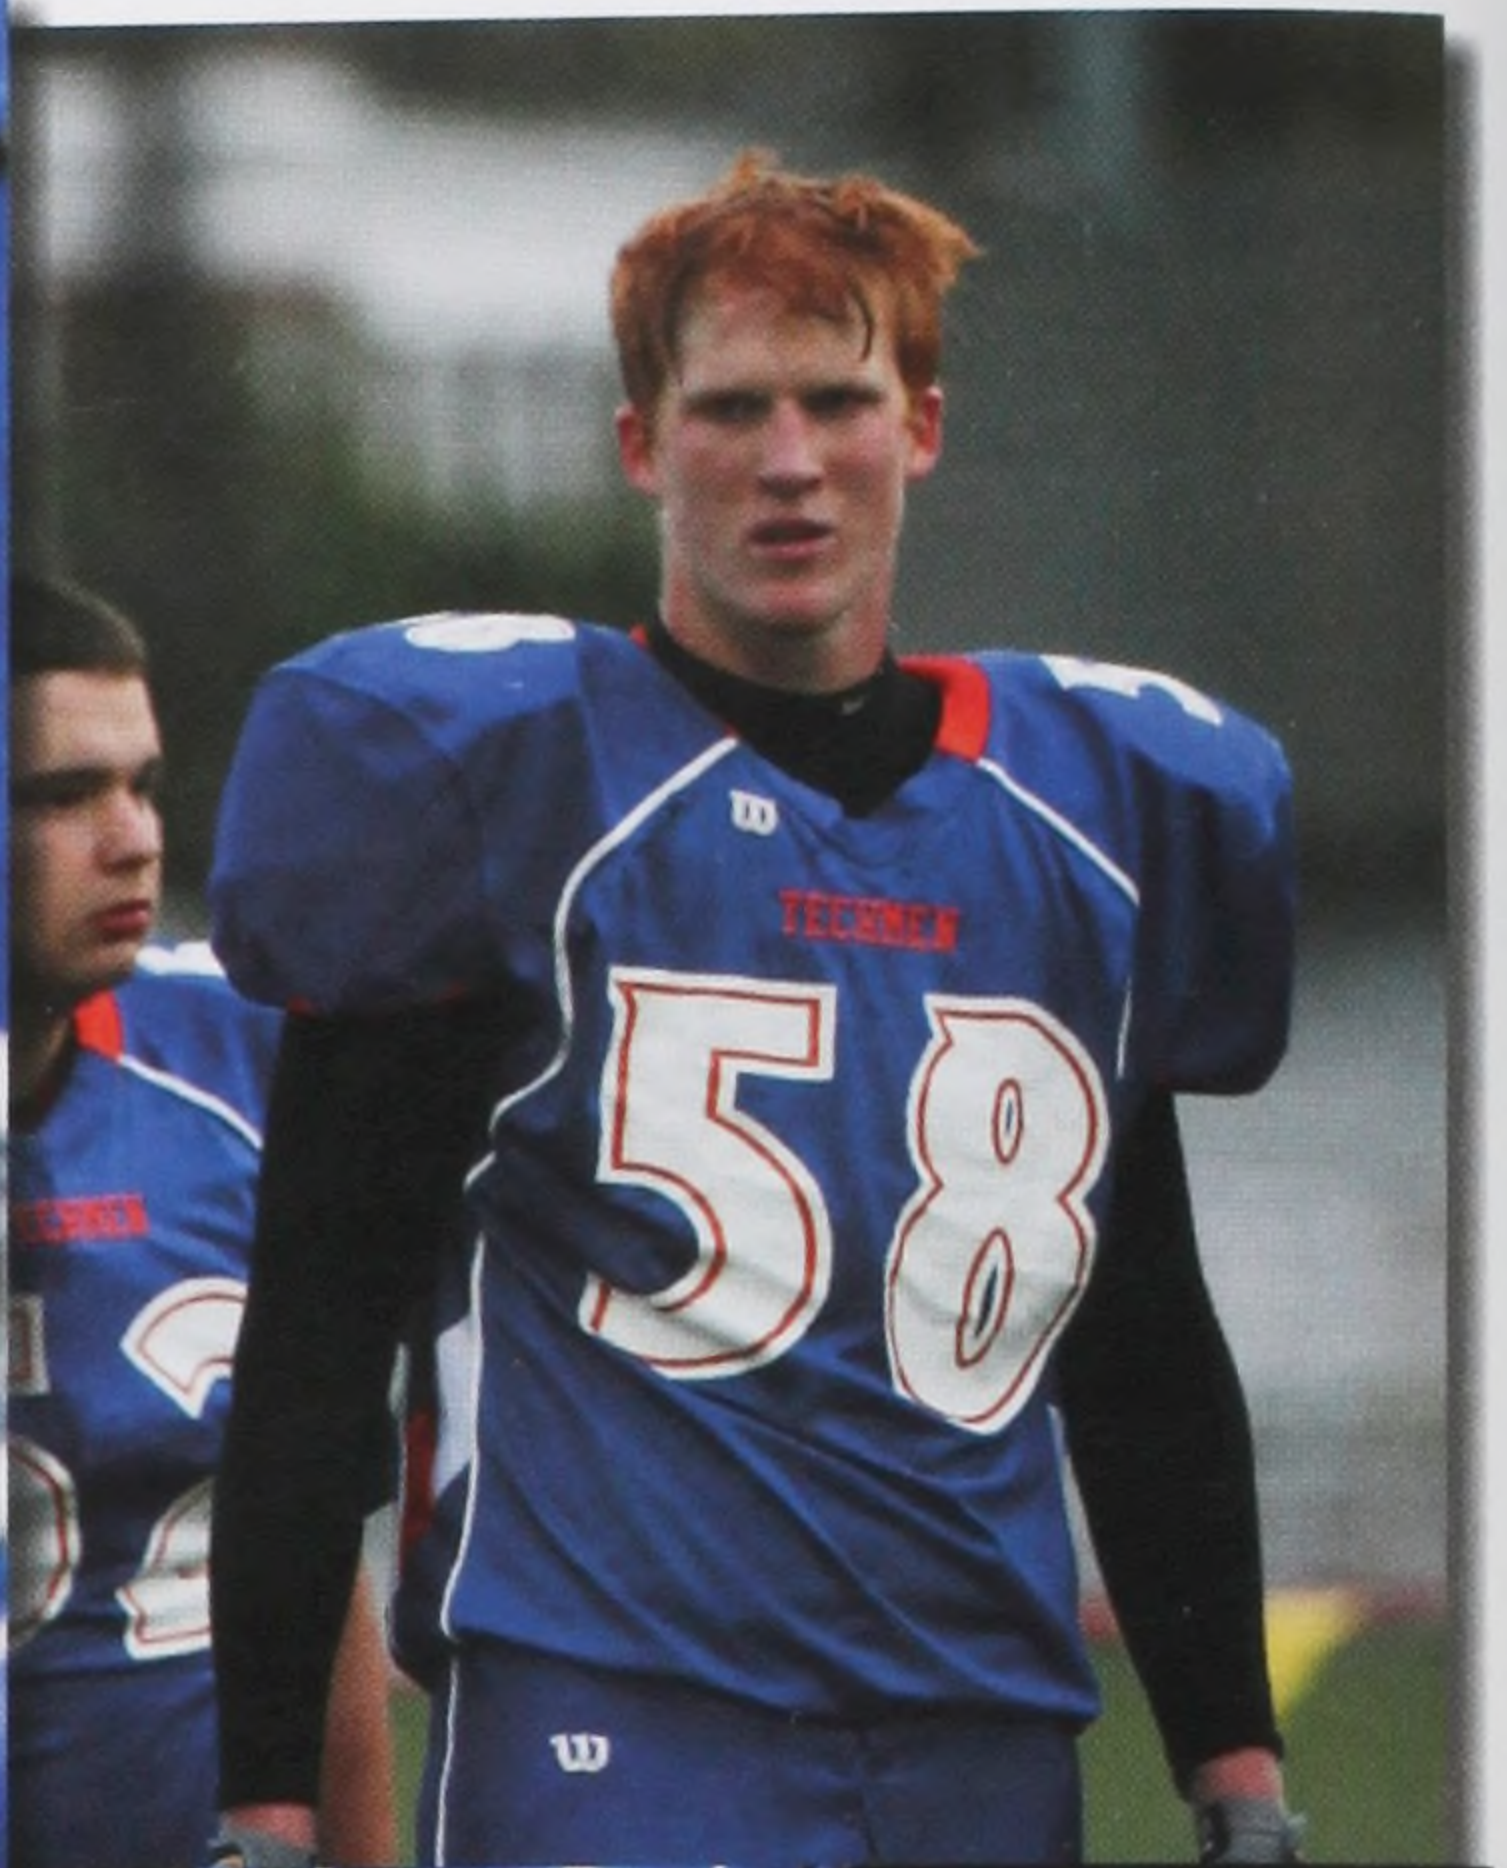

I once hitchhiked across Namibia, Botswana, Zimbabwe, Zambia, and Tanzania on my way to Zanzibar, while on break from teaching math in the Peace Corps

Fall Fun

"Hey guys! I can fly!" ~Devin "No way! So can I!" ~Kevin "Me three!" ~Lance "I've totally got this!" ~Sean Quinton winds up for his turn... But falls short ...

Homecoming

Benson vs. Jefferson

It was the last game of the season, everyone was getting excited, especially the seniors because it was the last time we'd get to play together.. Once the game started everyone was playing as hard as they could. In the first quarter I was injured, their nose guard rolled my ankle so I couldn't return to the game. I felt I let the team down. The game was close and we were trying for a last minute comeback, but we fell short. Everyone felt bad but we knew we played the hardest and that next year we needed to work harder. Next year I know Benson will be ready for anything.-Trevor Winegar

Winter Fun

"Life is like freshly fallen snow. Be careful where you walk because every step will show."

Neal Stephenson

During a weekend of fun with friends, Taylor Trujillo shows off her snowboarding skills up on Mt. Hood, and takes some time to enjoy the evening view.

(below) Benson automotive students are given the opportunity to attend the Portland International Auto Show, free of charge and admire the cars they wish they could own, such as this new, blue convertible Mustang.

Talk about an adventure, three of Benson's seniors pose for a photo on Mt. Hood during a group trip up to the slopes to enjoy the fresh powder.

The S.O.S. crew relaxes after shredding some Pit stop? powder on Mt. Hood.

The family that learns together rides together

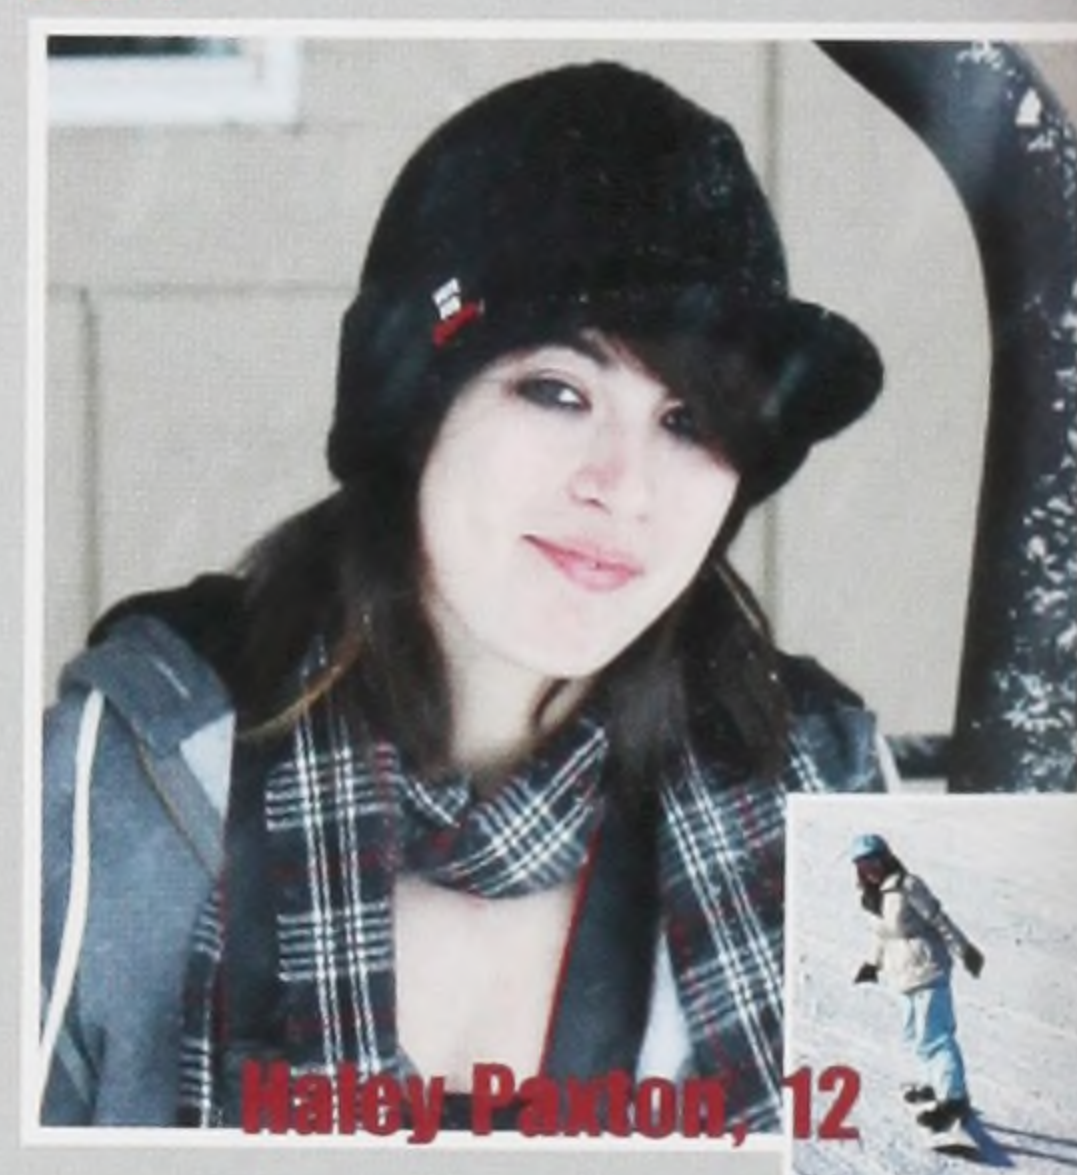

Joey Wallberg and his brothers Jeff (a Benson alum) and David enjoy some quality bonding time (and shared body heat) on the chilly ski lift before hitting the slopes.

Snowboarding Outreach Society S.O.S.

Jessica Roach, 09

"I joined S.O.S. because I love being on the mountain with kids my age. Being around such devoted people helps motivate me to improve my snowboarding skills."

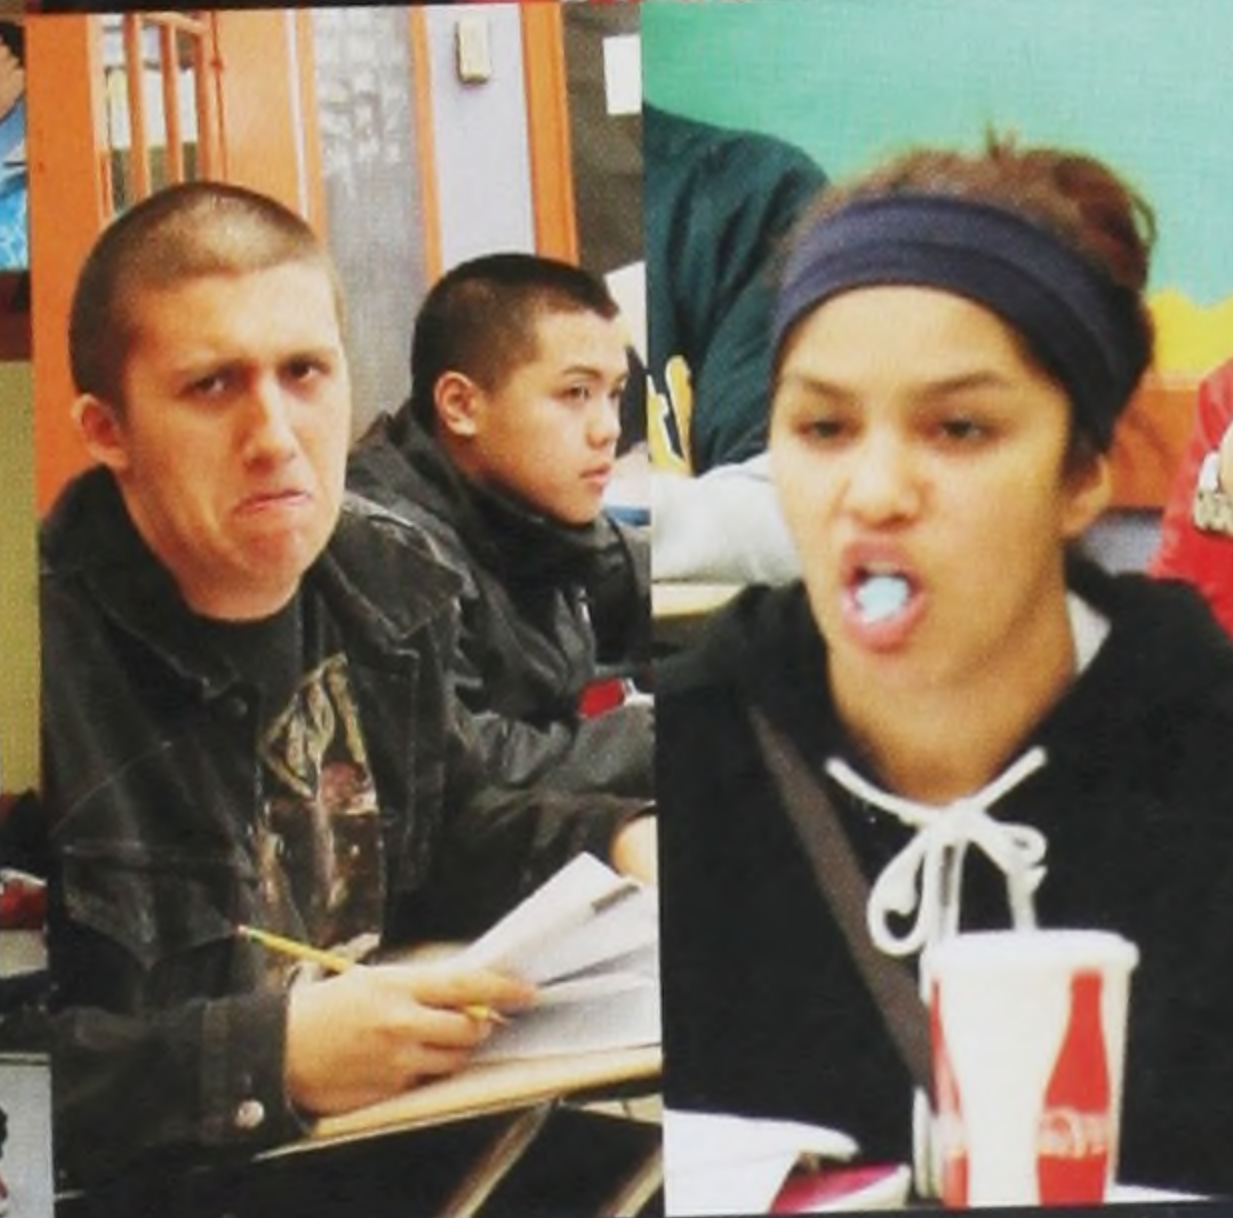

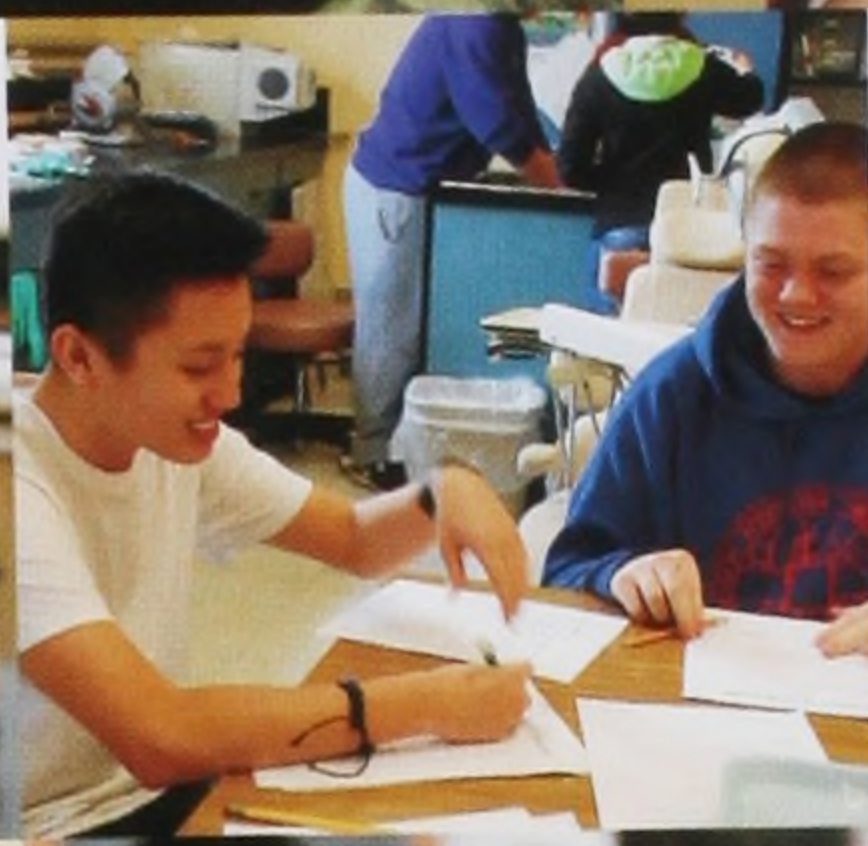

Waley Paxton, 12

"I joined S.O.S. freshman year because I wanted to learn how to snowboard. I had a lot of fun & decided to continue with it through high school. I always enjoy watching new boarders learn how to ride & I just love the mountain. I look up to my sherpas & I am so happy I joined."

About the program

S.O.S. Outreach is a youth development nonprofit that builds character and self-esteem in underserved youth through programs that offer an outdoor adventure and leadership development curriculum. The mission of S.O.S. Outreach is to inspire youth to make positive decisions for healthy and successful lives. S.O.S. Outreach has five Core Values: Courage, Discipline, Integrity, Wisdom, and Compassion. Once a member goes through the "learn-to-ride" program, they get promoted to University where they do 3 community service activities, workshops, and, of course, shred the snow.

Expectations/Plans for next year?

Trung Le

I plan to take have a fun and relaxing year next year.

Robbie Minor

Next year I hope to be working on rebuilding an engine in the auto shop.

Bronson Kim

My plans for next year are to take AP Physics and winning state in robotics!

Mayra Elicea

I think next year will be very stressful and also very exciting.

Franz

You know that smell of bread you get when you walk outside? That's Franz Bakery. Upon walking into their doors you'll see rows and rows of cheap snacks such as candy, energy drinks, and doughnuts. Though that may be what everyone knows it for, those are not the only products they offer. They also offer actual bread and fruit.

1: Eat at Franz

2: Eat in the Cafeteria

3: Eat at Lloyd center

4: Eat at Voodoo Donuts

"Cafeteria food is good!"- PPS Or is it? Look at the repulsed looks of these students as they carefully dissect their lunches.

Some students are scared to even go into the cafeteria because of all the nasty things people hear about the food there. Others just enjoy a free meal.

Voodoo Donuts

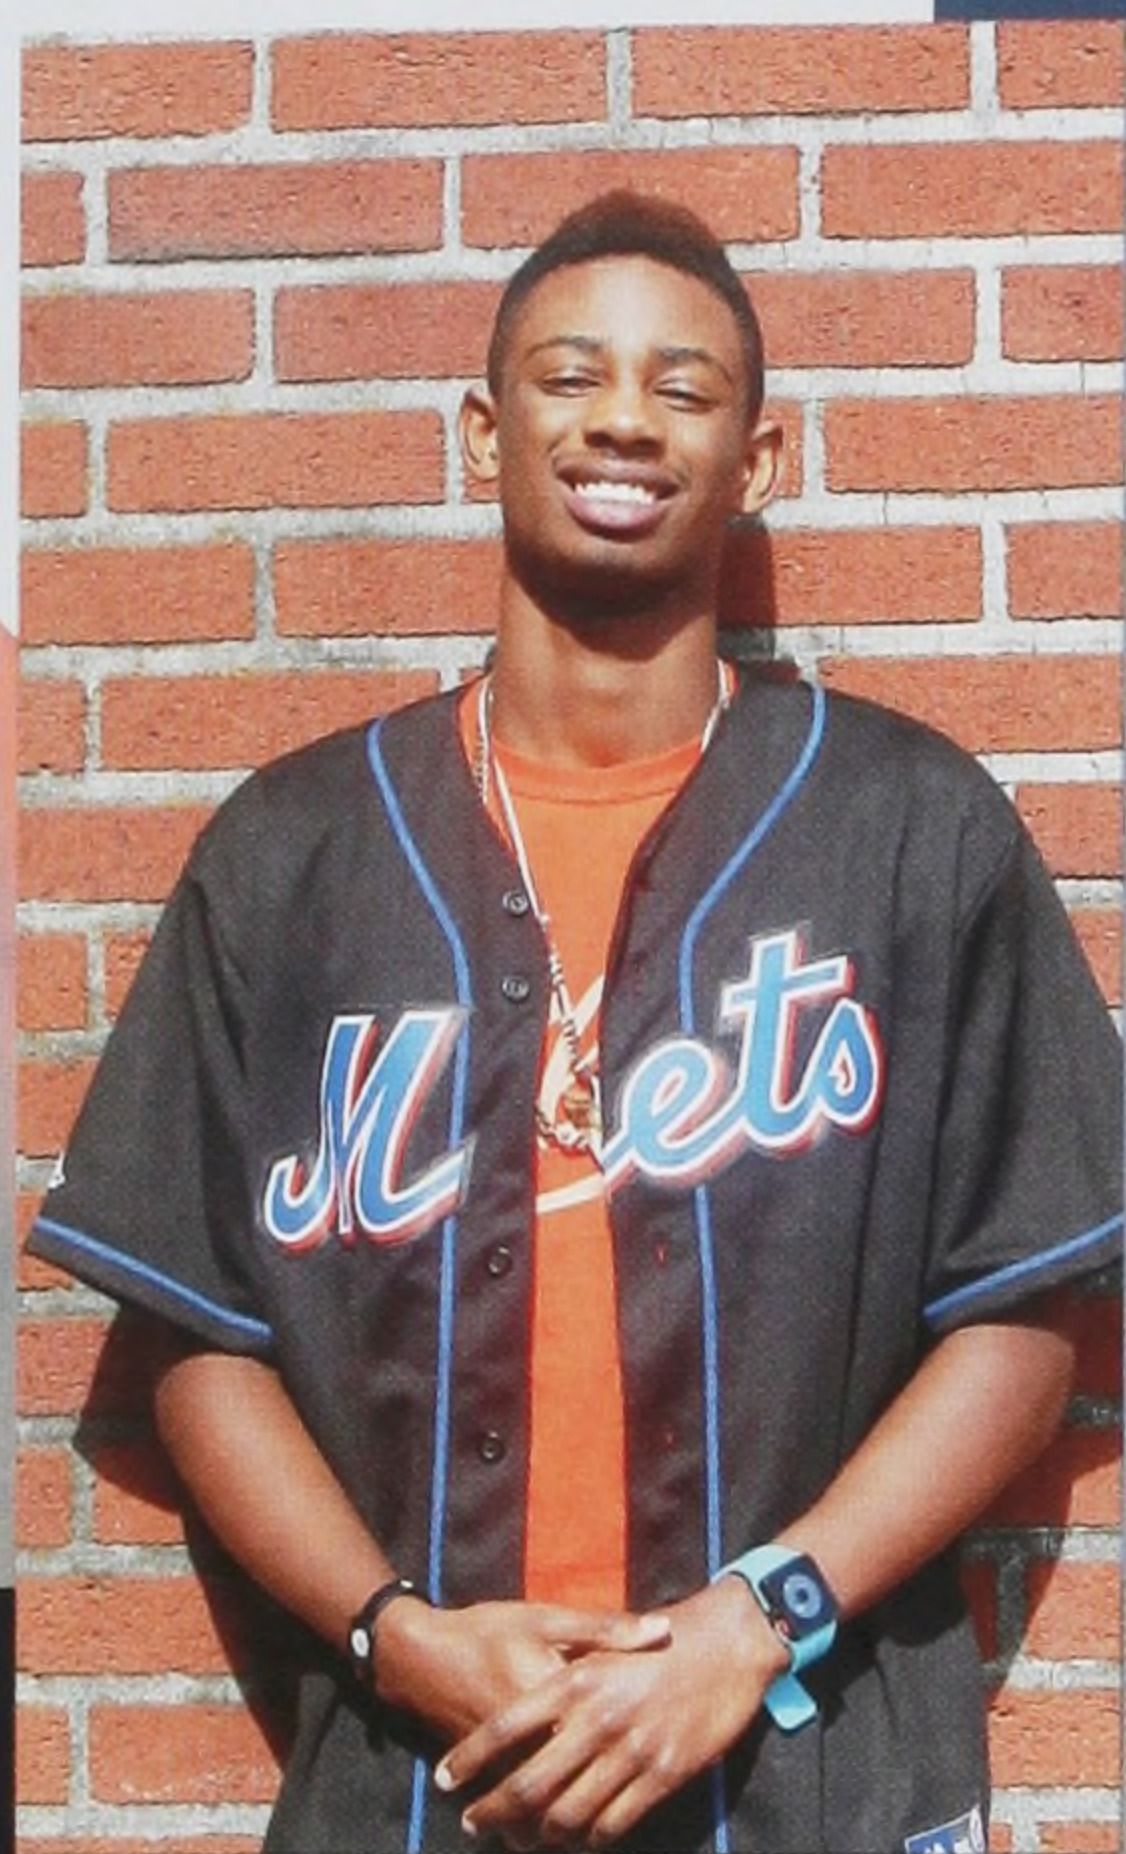

Many a freshman has ruined their PE workout with a lunchtime stop at Voodoo Donuts. If you're lucky you might even run into someone who's ponied up the five dollars to buy a bucket of day-olds.

Lloyd Center

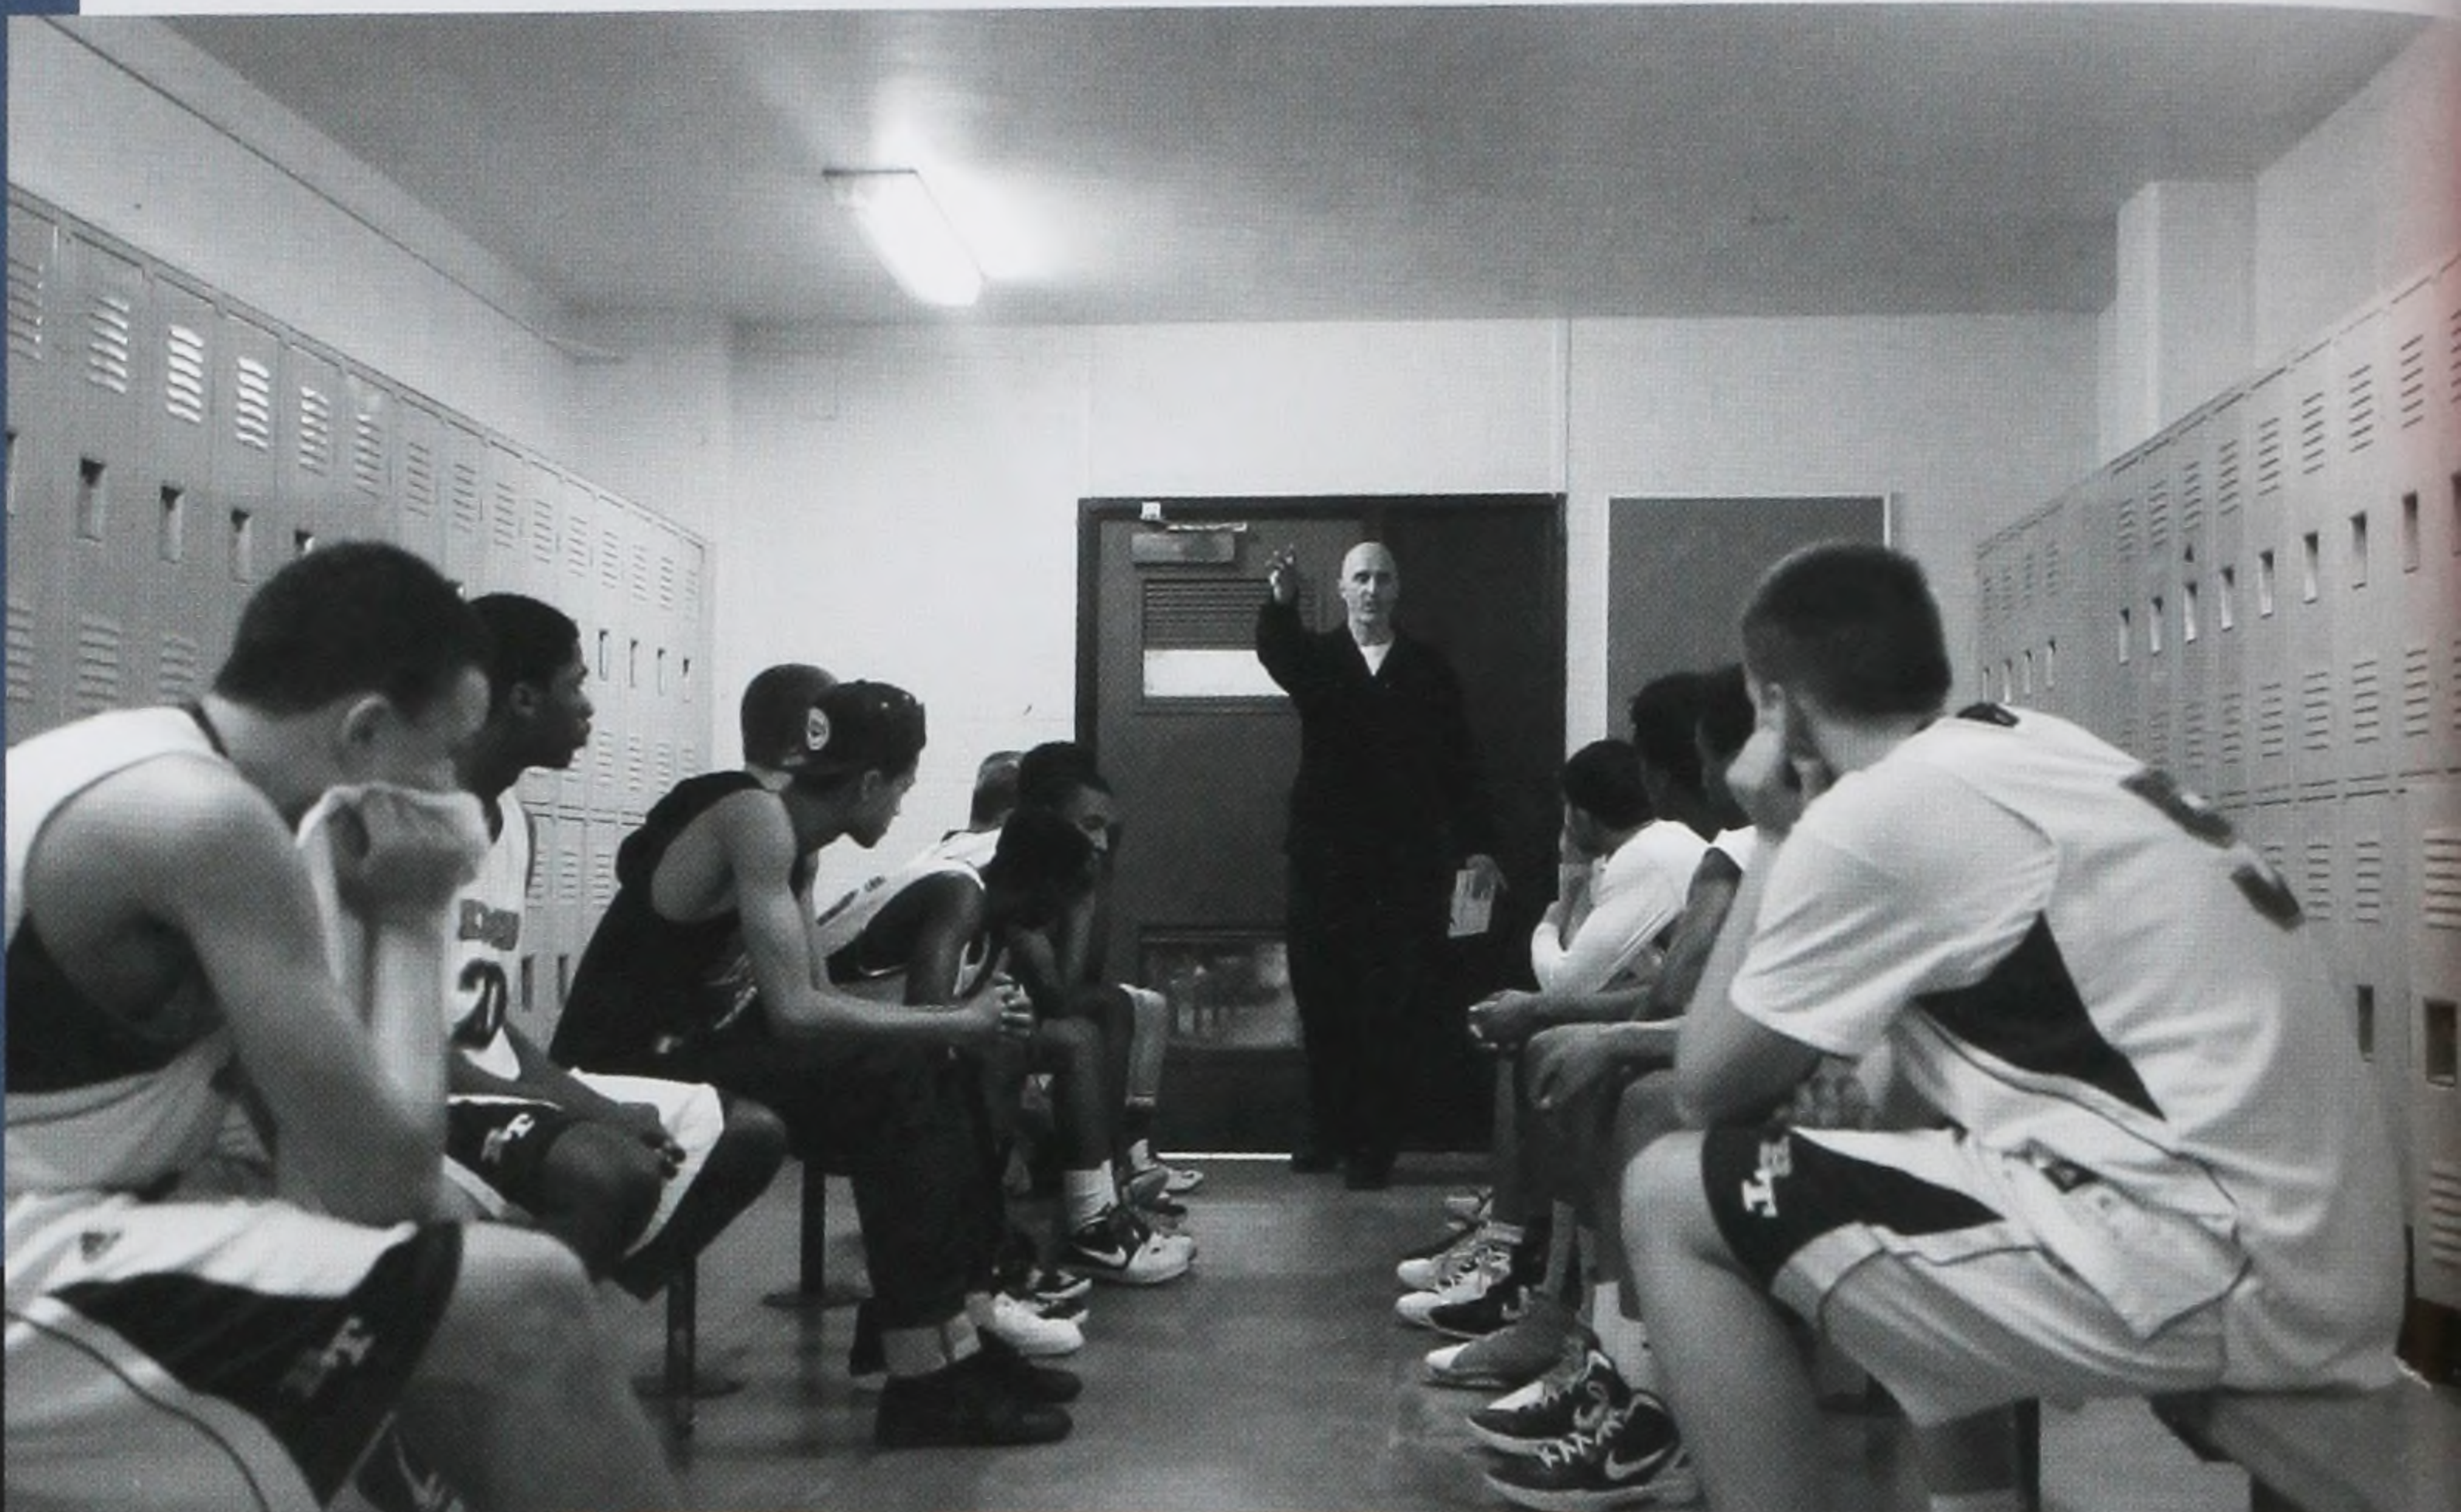

Many students use there seemingly short lunch period to scurry down to the Lloyd Center Mall. Here in the food court they will choose from one of the many fast food restaurants, including Taco Time, Cajun Grill and Subway.

The letters of recommendation are in. The essays have been written. Deadlines have passed.

Every spring Benson seniors make us proud by garnering millions of dollars in scholarships and securing some of the most sought-after internships.

Benson provides students with a unique opportunity: to prepare for a career while they gain skills that will prepare them for higher education.

By offering the finest in professional/technical programming side-by-side with Advanced Placement courses in history, literature, physics, biology and more, Benson provides a solid foundation for students' lives after high school.

Clubs

"One Goal, One passion"

Advertising Club

The Advertising Club is a group of artists producing ads. They learn how to use their artistic talents to do something that could help them make a living in the future. They learn important advertising techniques and improve their art.

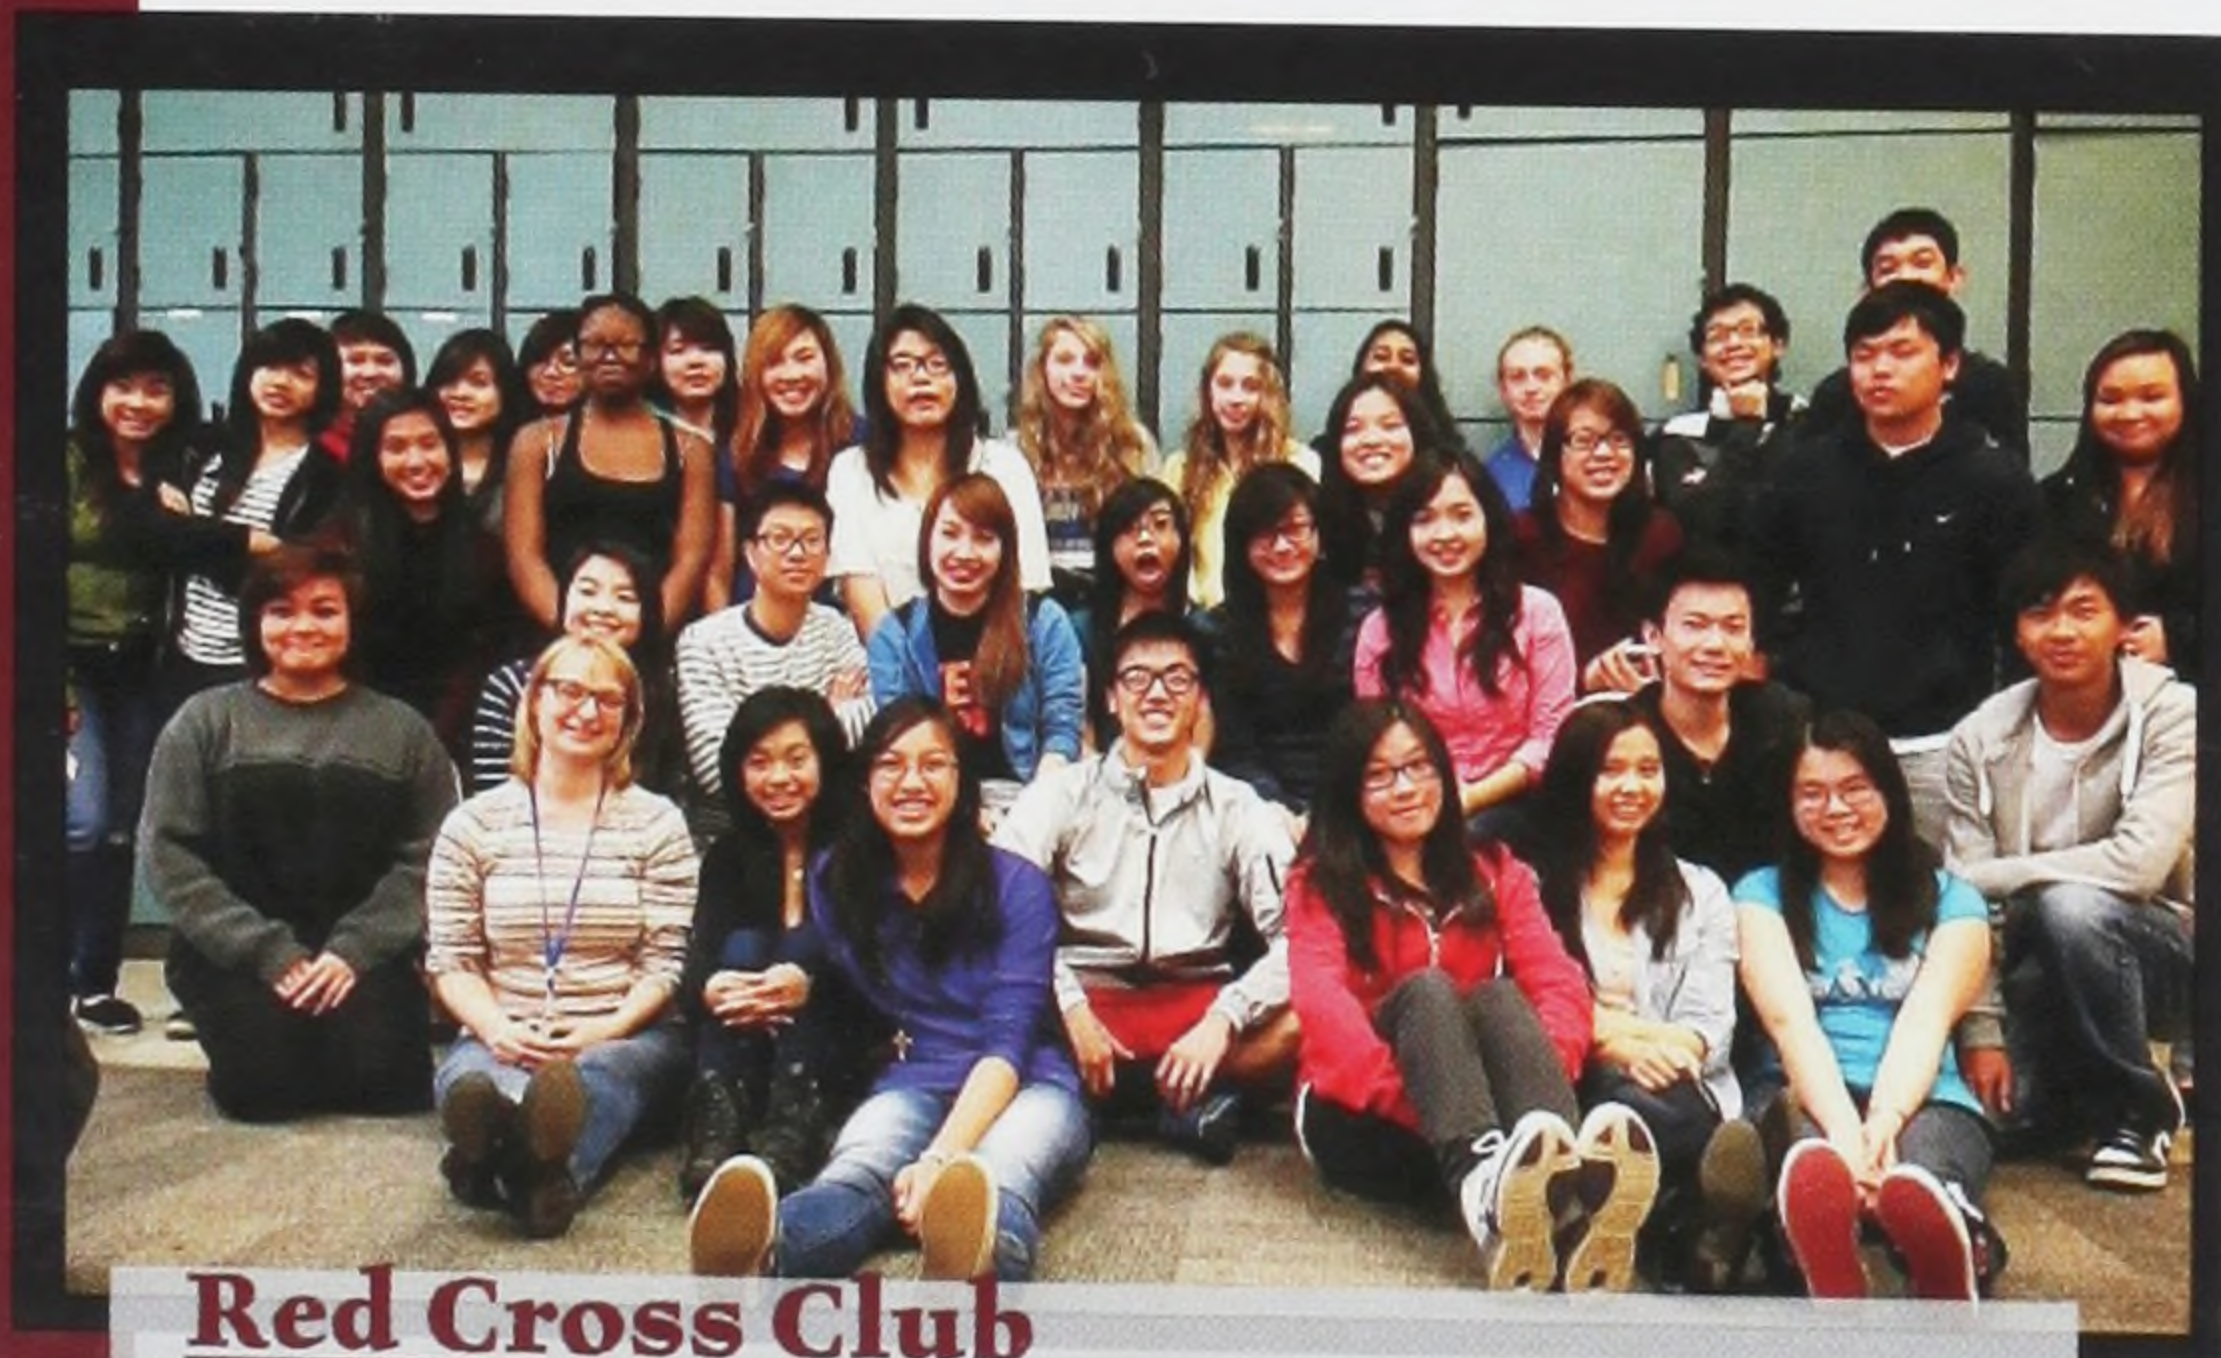

Gay/Straight Alliance

The school's Gay Straight Alliance (GSA) works to create equality and acceptance between students, regardless of sexual orientation. They join together for unity and peace.

Key Club

Key Club is an international student-led organization which provides its members with opportunities to provide service, build character and develop leadership. We are caring and competent servant leaders transforming communities worldwide. The core values of Key Club International are leadership, and character building.

Red Cross Club

Red Cross Club helps promote awareness about natural disasters. It helps participants build leadership and character. Inside the school they help promote safety and teach general knowledge to combat possible disasters.

Robotics

The Robotics club features three teams who compete in building robots designed to conquer a certain challenge issued each year. This year's challenge involved building a robot to hang rings on pegs.

BATS

Whenever there is an assembly, the BATS signal is sent to the BATS cave, and so they all gather at the BATS mobile and go to the scene where they are needed. In other words, they're roadies who set up the lights and microphones for the assemblies.

Chefs Club

Things are really cooking up in chefs club this year! Ms. Amy and Mrs. Murchison get together with students after school to show them how to cook and prepare healthy delicious food. At the end of each day everyone participating gets together to eat and enjoy the meal they've just made.

National Honors Society

National Honors Society is a way for honors students to give back to their community. The students must have at least a 3.4 GPA to participate. National Honors Society promotes leadership and character building through community service.

PSU Innovate Club

The Schools of 2025 is a new program It is sponsored by PSU and involves students getting together to talk about, plan, and present ideas that can improve the schools in the future.

Diversity Club

The Diversity Club is in charge of organizing the Diversity Assembly. They work to organize all the performers so that we can celebrate Benson's great diversity.

Hispanic Club

The Hispanic Club discusses issues and prejudices in the Hispanic community. They collectively work to promote the image of Latinos and celebrate their heritage together.

OCEAN AND SCIENCE BOWL

This year our club was made up of 15 students: 5 Seniors, 8 Juniors, and 2 Sophomores.

Science Bowl was a little rough this year when we received some bad news the week before the competition: one of our top players was sick. When he didn't show up to the competition, everyone knew that it was going to be a hard day. Nonetheless, the teams tried their best to face off against the hardest questions we'd ever had, and, in the face of such challenges we weren't successful.

Ocean Bowl was a little more eventful this year. After a field trip down to the coast to learn about ocean equipment and run around on the beach in freezing temperatures, we were ready to head down to Corvallis for the competition. Once there, we heard a lecture from a real life astronaut, and enjoyed our time relaxing at the hotel the night before the competition.

Memorable Quotes!

Zach: I wonder what Devon would say in this situation...
Bronson: He'd say something like, 'Cool story bro, hair flip'.

"Viscosity, Kien. VISCOSITY!"

Bronson: I forgot sharks had jaws...

"MOLT THEIR FUR?!"

"I'm too classy for that...you gotta pay up front."

"I want to see your EYEEEEES!!"

Automotive

The opportunities Benson automotive students are presented with are unique, fun, informative and can help even in day-to-day life, keeping up with the maintenance of one's own vehicle. Automotive is a perfect balance of learning and fun and there is never a shortage of ways one can branch off to work.

Kevin skillfully welds a hole in his exhaust pipe with the hopes of getting his beloved ride back on the road.

Students earning their wings!

Auto isn't all tires and steering wheels. For some students, the air appeals more than the road, and senior year is an opportunity to get experience with propellers and yokes. Getting involved with aviation gives students (such as Derrick and Cheyenne, pictured below) the opportunity to gain more knowledge about the inner workings of modern air crafts from Mr. Railey, who knows a thing or two about flying machines.

Students, start your engines!

"Automotive was a great alternative for me. At first, I was unsure as to what my decision would be. However, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Railey are great teachers and I felt that a relaxed, hands-on environment major would be the best for me."

John Lorenz IV

"Auto has been a great experience for me. I've been able to work on my own projects and Mr. Railey and Mr. Anderson have helped me so much on getting things done right."

Devin Sweeting

"I'm lucky enough to be a double major and I spend two periods a day in auto and manufacturing. No matter what, I have fun in these classes and learn more than I ever imagined. YEE-HAW"

Quinton Anderson

Construction

The real on-the-job work experience, building the Benson House, and the shop projects, are what makes Building Construction truly hands on. It's fun and different from any of the other majors at Benson, and introduces students to LEED and Energy Efficiency (Energy Star) standards used in the construction industry.

Pull up a seat and stay a while!

Construction is a major in which creativity is free to grow. While there are class projects intended to teach basic construction skills, students also get the opportunity to create their own projects; students like Darian Romero (junior). Darian draws inspiration from his dad and other family members when building. When not completing class projects, he skillfully crafts other items, such as chairs and decorative boxes

It deals with a lot of math and we are always doing something at the Benson house or working on our projects. I think this is the best major at Benson."

Turn on the Spotlight!

Electric

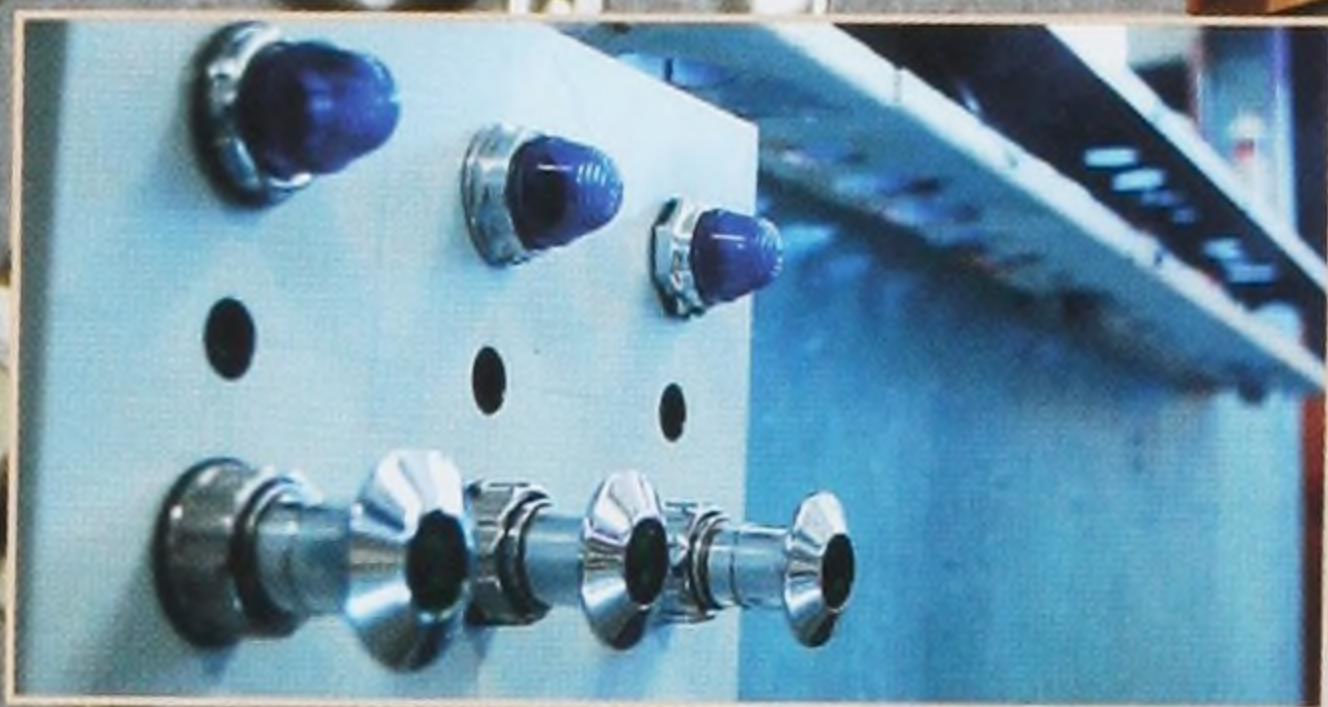

Students who major in electric start off learning simple circuits and the basics of the trade, working on in class projects and games that are displayed at Tech Show. Junior and senior year they get to apply these skills by assisting in the construction of the Benson House by providing the wiring for it.

Instructors:

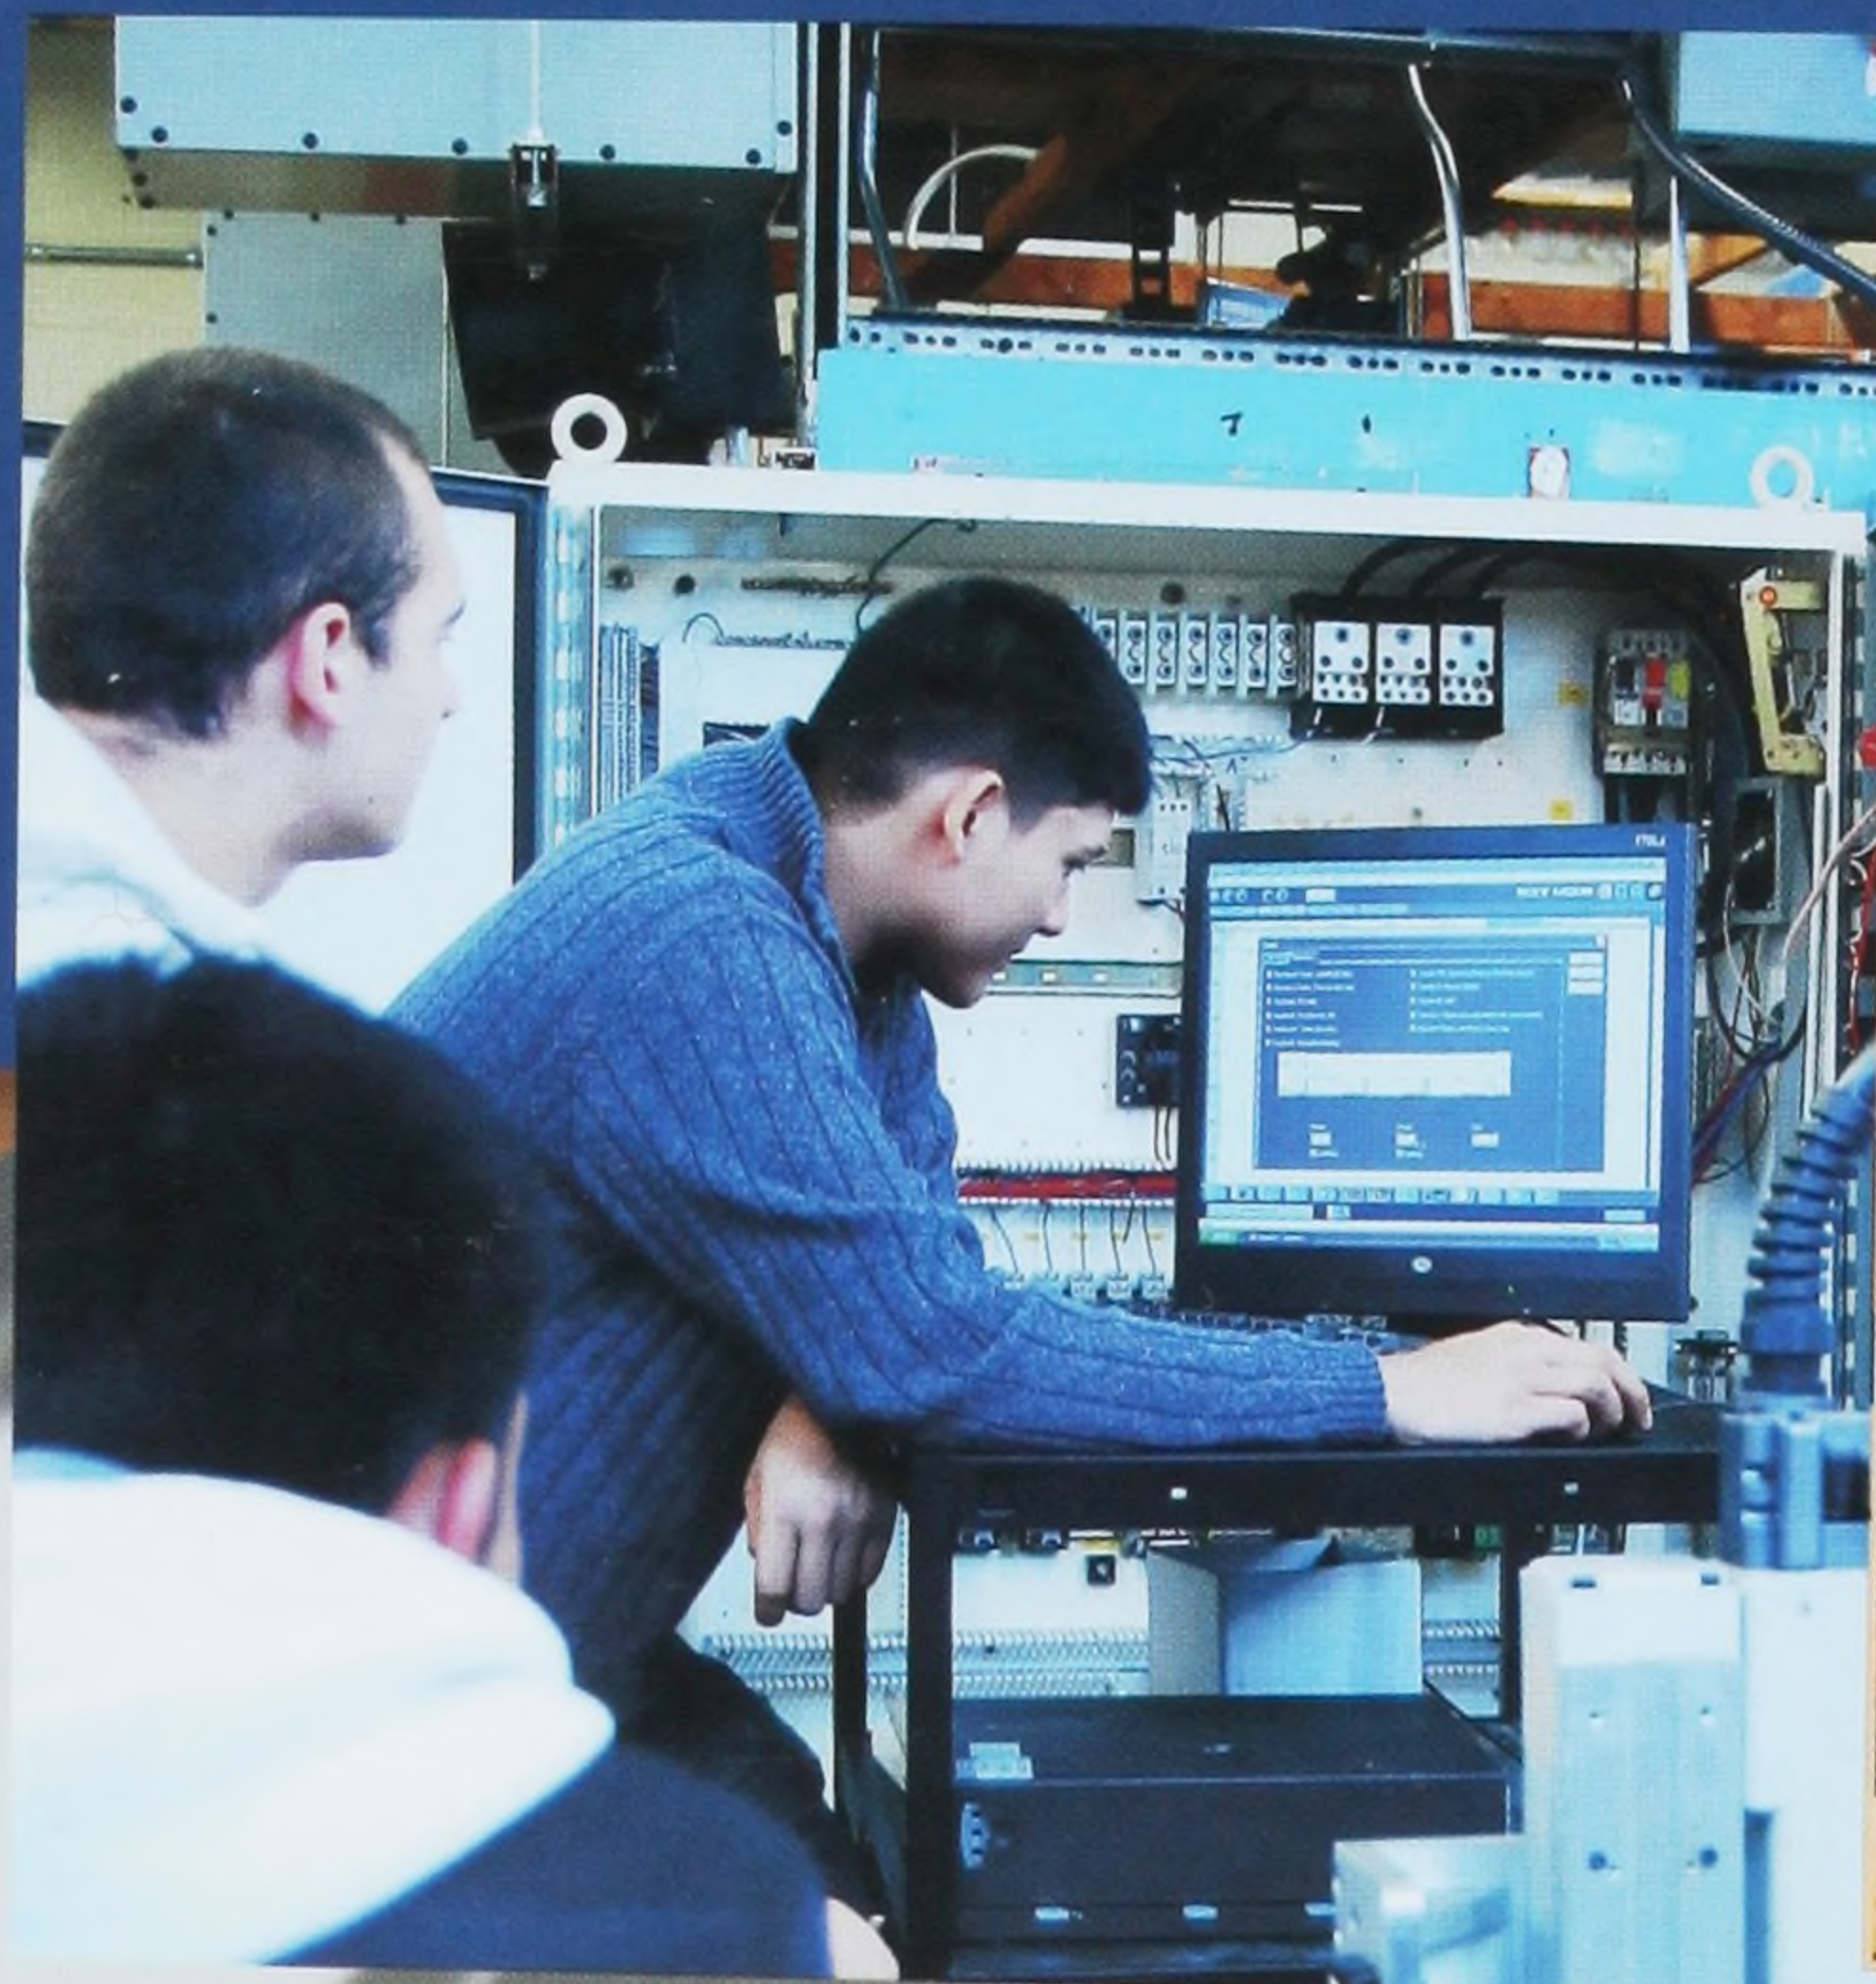

Tim Hryciw, Ed Railey

Senior Status:

Andrey Baranovich, Zachary Bright, Bret Christopherson, Steven Dinh, Marche Johnson, Noah Krebs, Joshua Leach, Tereza Luwo, Tiara Moxley, Jeffery Ouellette, Amanda Schmidt, Cesar Torres-Rodriguez, Johnny Trieu, Lance Vigil, Ricky Wade, Evan Wagstaff, Raymond Wilkins

Looking down from his perch atop a ladder, Evan Wagstaff instructs his fellow seniors on the proper way to ring a bell.

Rockin' with the orange and rollin' with the blue... Literally.

Skills learned in electric not only prepare students for the future, but can also come in handy when problems arise at home. The power wire to Cesar Rodriguez's (featured below) beloved Epiphone Les Paul guitar disconnected, striking a sour chord and leaving him unable to play it without a repair. The things he learned in his major allowed him to save the money it would cost to take it to a shop, and fix it himself, so this music lover won't miss a beat.

Let the Sparks Fly!

"I chose to major in electric and communications. I always wanted to do web design and graphic design and I really enjoy the electrical engineering."

Caleb Martin-Long

"I thank Mr. Hryciw very much with teaching us house wiring, because when our heater wasn't working at home I was able to rewire it and got the heater to work. I was also able to wire my guitar!"

Cesar Rodriguez

"My major has provided me with a rock solid idea of what I want to do with my future. My classmates make me enjoy my class even more, with the jokes we make and the random things that tend to happen."

Tiara Moxley

Manufacturing

Manufacturing majors get the opportunity to gain experience in the foundry, machining, welding and CAD/Mastercam programs. From tool bits as a freshman to a two ton hydraulic jack as a senior, with personal projects in between, students cover a great range of different techniques and tools of the trade in an incredibly hands on and fun class.

Instructors:

Barth Clooten, Will Green

Senior Status:

Derrick Allgood, Manuel Alvarado-Aguilar, Quinton Anderson, Sean Corrigan, Gabe Hale, Forrest Ingram, Elaine Vu-Phan, Kasandra Aparicio, Edgard Banuelos, Jerryd Becherer, Cherilynn Brown, Derek Brown, Jordan Ewell, Jose- Angel Flores, Carlos Herrera, Quinn McCurdy, Josh Sandall, Joey Wallberg, Indigo Way, Shaun Wheeler, Trevor Winegar, Ryan Writz

Right: Alex tries his hand at photo bombing as Ryan tries to reason with Mr. Clooten. But as he always says, "I AM IN CHARGE!"

Working hard, or hardly working?

A reliable student and TA, Gabriel Hale (senior) can often be found in manufacturing, doing favors for Mr. Clooten, such as cutting up a metal frame with a plasma torch.

But on the other hand, he can also be found napping in these same shops. Makes you wonder how much work he REALLY gets done.

"I am a double major & I believe that majors are the best thing about Benson. I am in automotive and manufacturing & they have given me valuable work skills that will help me for the rest of my life."

~ Sean Corrigan

"Through manufacturing, I received an apprenticeship. I was prepared with the necessary skills & work ethic through my major. Thank you Mr. Clooten! I'm financially stable & will use my experience from manufacturing and my apprenticeship in the future."

Elaine Vu-Phan

"Manufacturing this year has so far been a great learning experience. Hopefully the skills I learn here will allow me to attain a summer internship or find a job at Boeing. I love manufacturing because it gives me joy in what I am able to accomplish making."

I'll always remember...

A few words from the seniors about their most memorable moments at Benson

Joey Wallberg: When I had to stand outside in my underwear while the whole school passed by because the fire alarm was pulled during weigh-ins.

Haley Paxton: I'll always remember being part of the band freshman year and going on the beach trip at the end of the year. Everyone was so nice and I made a lot of friends because of band.

Greeley Guinn: When Calum dropped Taylor at the pep rally.

Aaron Lim: I remember when me and my friend Chau convinced Andrew to sniff chalk freshman year.

Cesar Rodriguez: I'll always remember the friends I've made over the last four years of my life. They've become brothers and sisters to me; they mean everything.

Rachelle Trump: I'll never forget our freshman year winter formal. I went with Sean. We got one of the last tickets with at least 50 people behind us in line. Taylor with Jacob in her bright yellow princess dress & Greeley with Mr. Donald Husband! Back when everyone actually cared about the dances... It was a great night.

Haley Lamb: I will always remember my first pep assembly. Watching the seniors walk in and seeing how crazy it was was really great.

Trevor Winegar: When Ricky was duct taped to an office chair and thrown down the hall.

Jerryd Becherer: I'll always remember when Mr. Smith broke the yard stick on a desk and it snapped in half and hit him in the face.

Cheyenne Lanham: I will always remember when we went on a trip to OSU freshman year and Mrs. Eames smacked Chau upside the head for having bad manners at the dinner table. It was SO loud!

Taylor Trujillo: When Mr. Wong didn't care.

Ben Bui: I will always remember when we saved Benson!

Heng Chen: That time of the year when Mr. Mylet shaves off his beard! It surprises me every time!

Desarae Henderson: I witnessed my very first Diversity assembly. The different and interesting cultures modeling their diversity when all of a sudden the Tongans came running towards the stage. Best day of my freshman year.

Shelby Graves: When Dylan Thompson front flipped in the weight room in P.E. and hit his face on the weights and busted his face.

Lance Vigil: Sneaking up above the stage in the auditorium sophomore year and writing my name

Zoe McEmrys is a Freshman with awesome hair who enjoys drawing for fun and by the request of friends online. Zoe was raised in a very artistic household and has been drawing with her mother since she was young. Inspired by fellow artists, she draws fantasy style pieces. Starting with small key features, she assembles her drawings like a puzzle.

Steven Washburn is a musician who has been practicing and playing for four years. He is mainly a drummer, but he plays some guitar on the side. He likes to spend his free time drumming and plays in an unnamed band.

Alicia Poff likes to draw cartoon and manga style drawings when she has some free time. She enjoys trying to mimic and draw in the style of anime shows. She's been drawing since middle school.

12

Cesar Rodriguez has been playing guitar since he was 12. Cesar's first guitar was a Fender, but he has since upgraded to a Les Paul. He is inspired by watching other guitarists and likes listening to metal and hard rock. Some of Cesar's favorite bands include, HIM and Bullet for My Valentine.

Q: How is life back home different from here?

A: My country is more "alive" at night time, and there are a lot more things to do.

Q: Do you like it here? Was hard to adjust?

A: Yes, I like it here. It wasn't that hard to adjust to the different life in general, but it was hard to adjust to the new school environment, since it is so different from school back home.

Q: How did you feel when you first got here?

A: I felt strange, but I was excited. It was just so different and I experienced some culture shock. I adapted well, though.

Q: How's life with your host family?

A: Good.

Q: What do you miss most about home?

A: I miss my dog!

How is life back home different from here?

It is way more green here. Also, the houses are very different. In Egypt, we have buildings (2 buildings of 5 floors) instead of single houses. The people are way more religious in Egypt, as well.

Do you like it here? Was hard to adjust?

It is very different. English is pretty hard, so that was a challenge for me at first. But the people at my school are so friendly, and they made me feel a lot better. I've made a lot of friends, including the other exchange student, Armando.

How did you feel when you first got here?

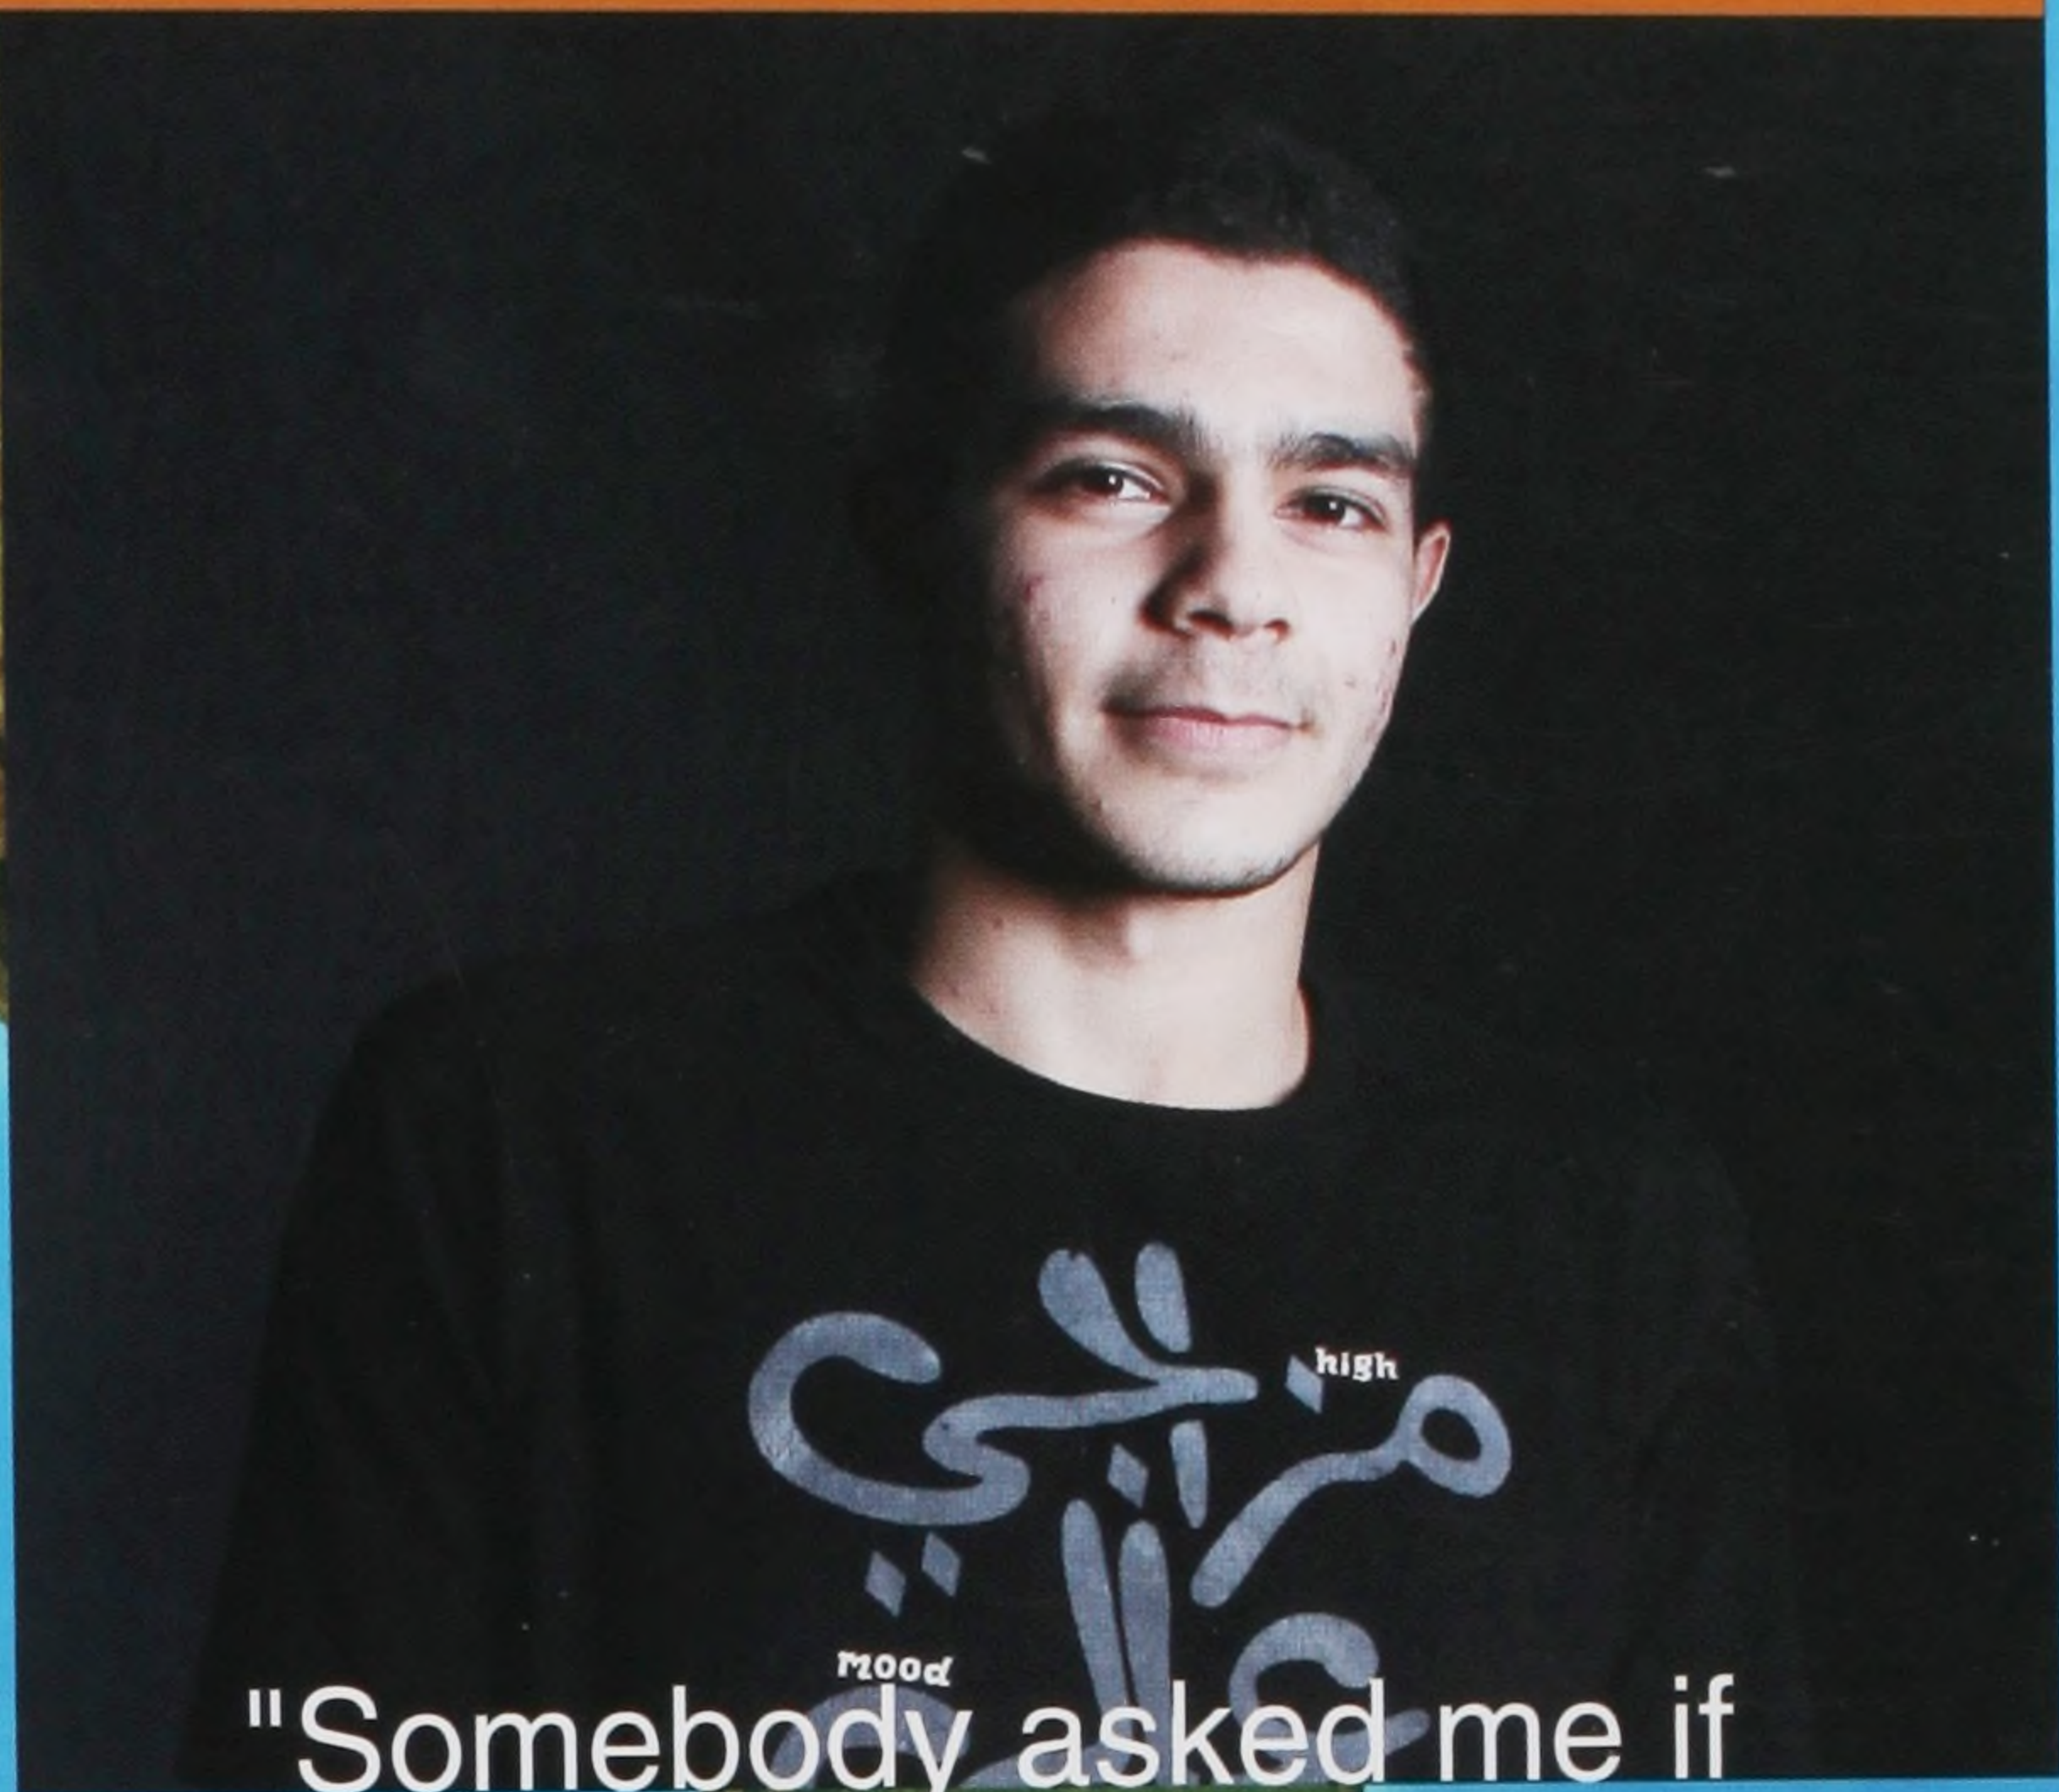

So weird. It was like I was out of place. I wasn't confused, but I just didn't know anybody and everything was very foreign and weird.

How's life with your host family?

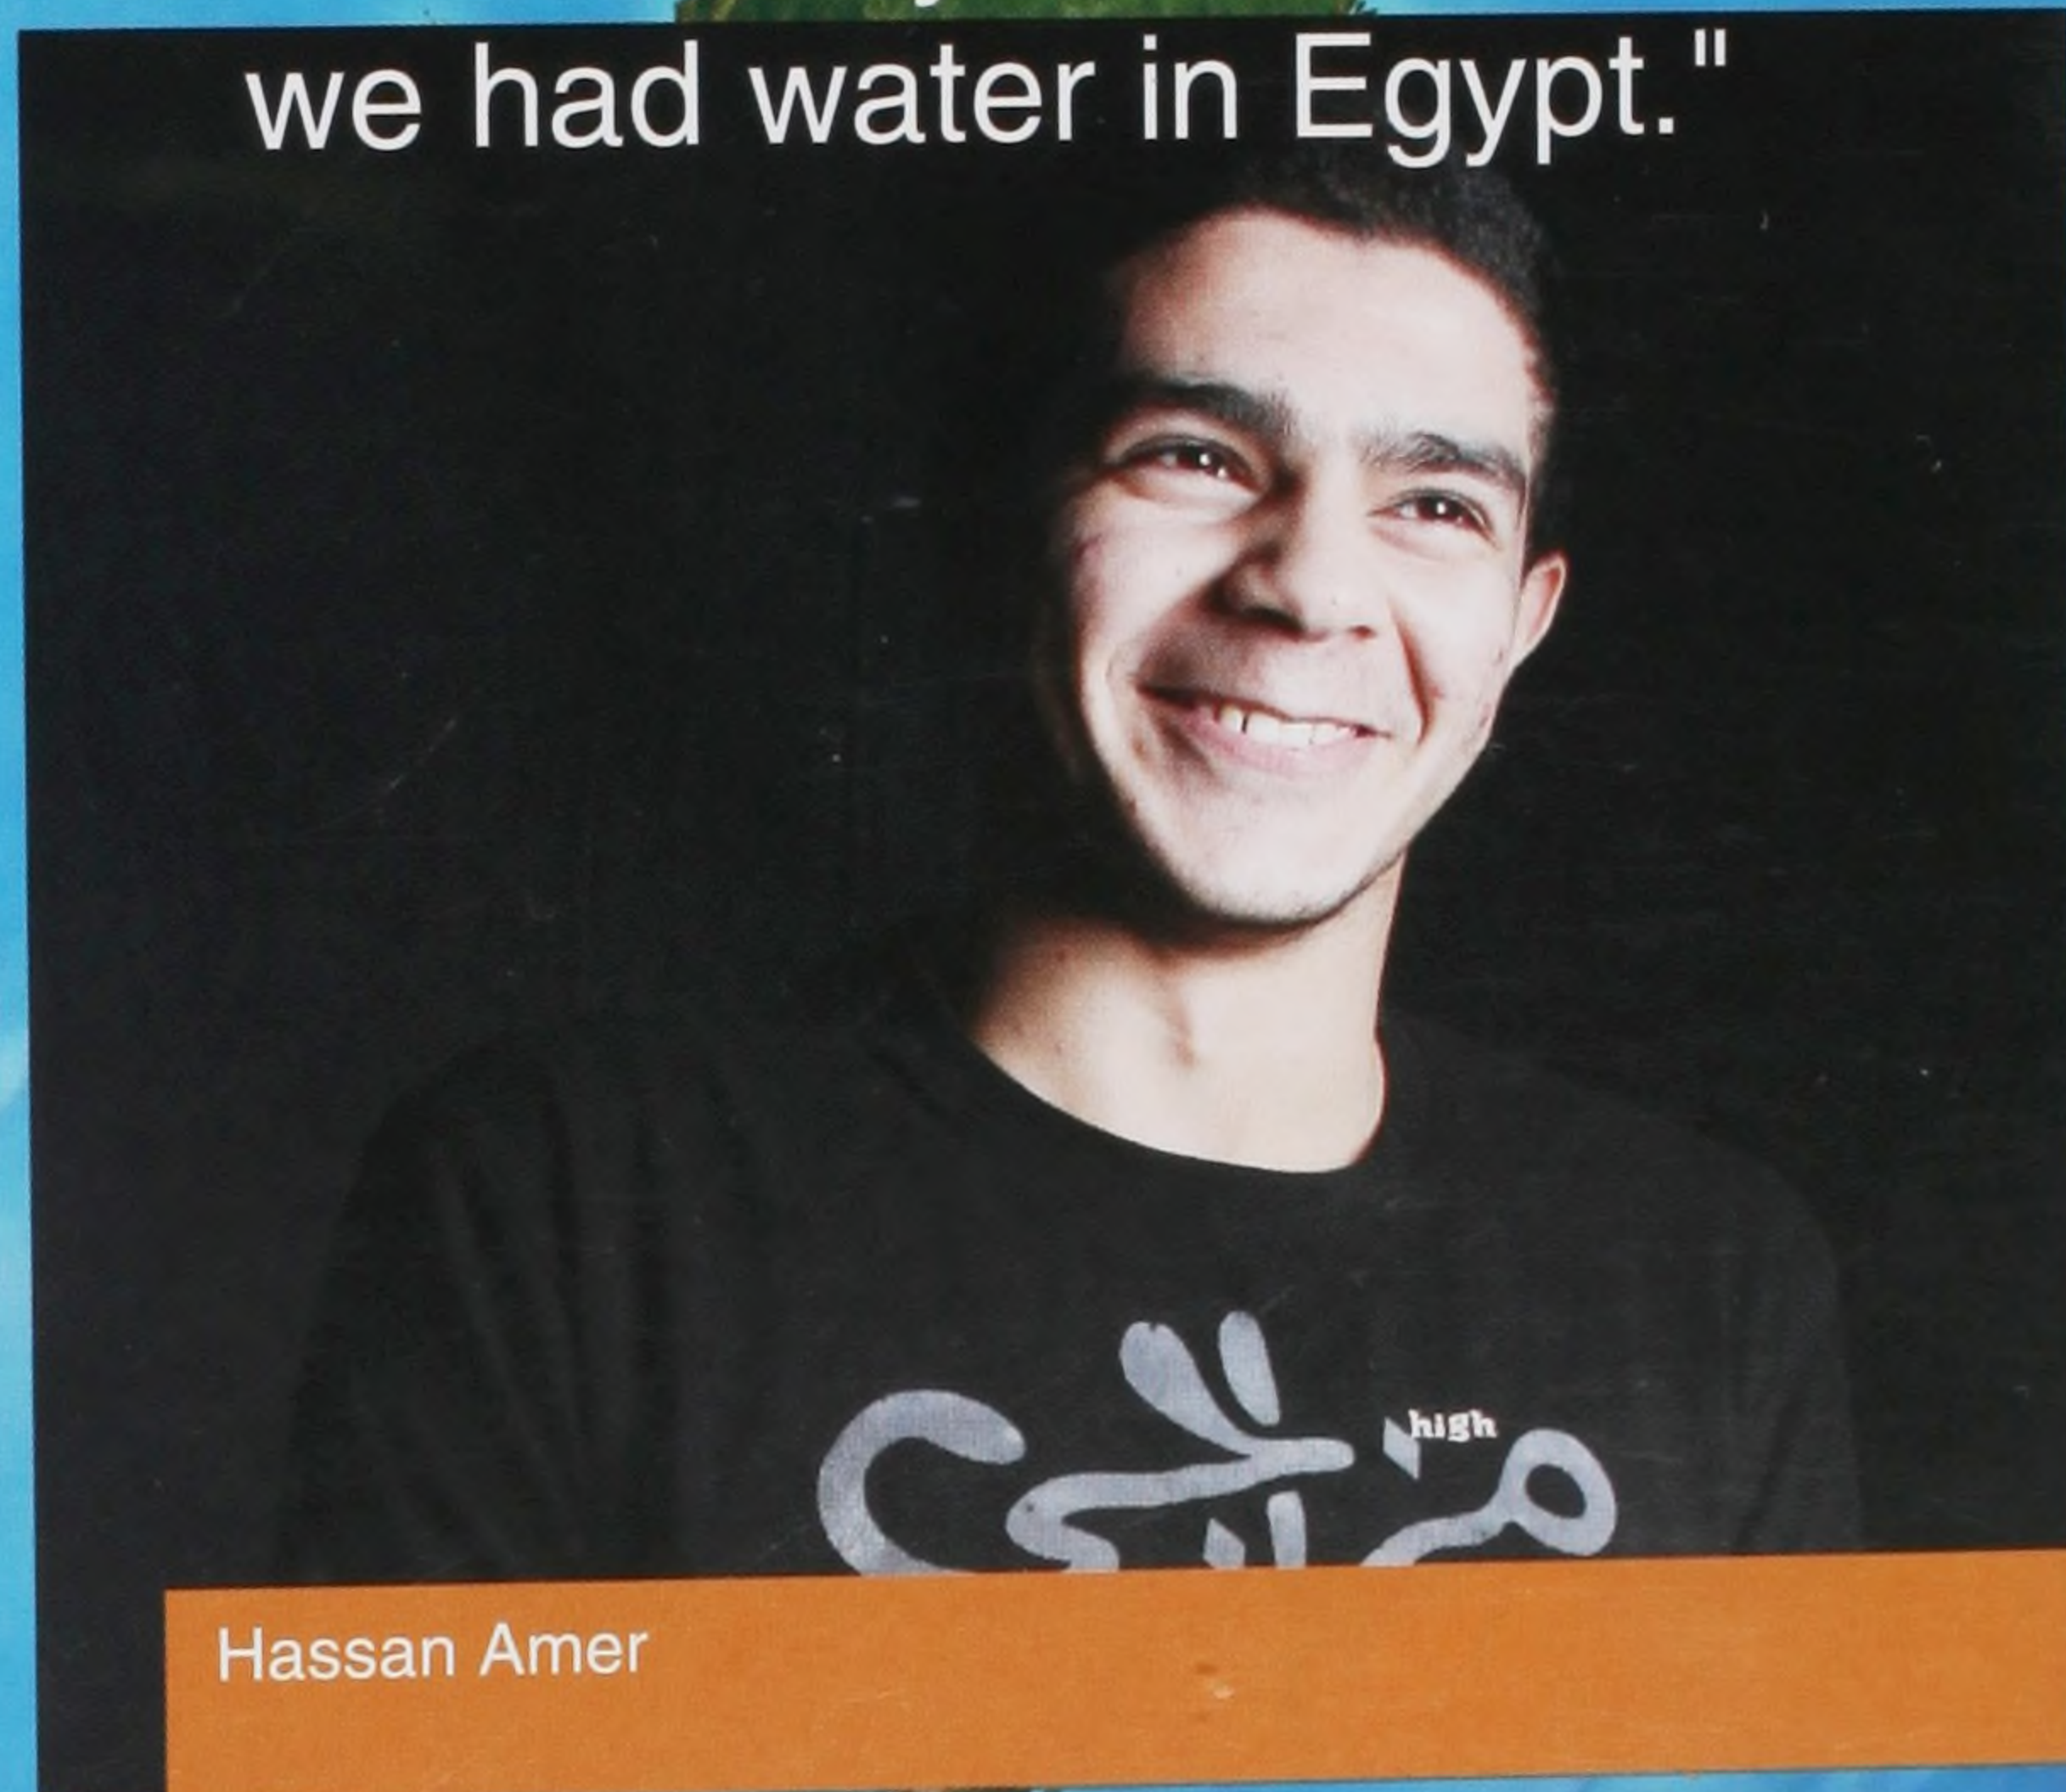

Awesome. We do a lot of activities together. They're very nice, and they really made me feel like part of the family. I have 2 "siblings". They love me, and they come to my basketball games to support me. We all have a great relationship.

What do you miss most about home?

Everything! I miss Egyptian food. My favorite is a dish called koshari. I also miss all of the people, and how everybody knows each other. The community is great.

TECH SHOW

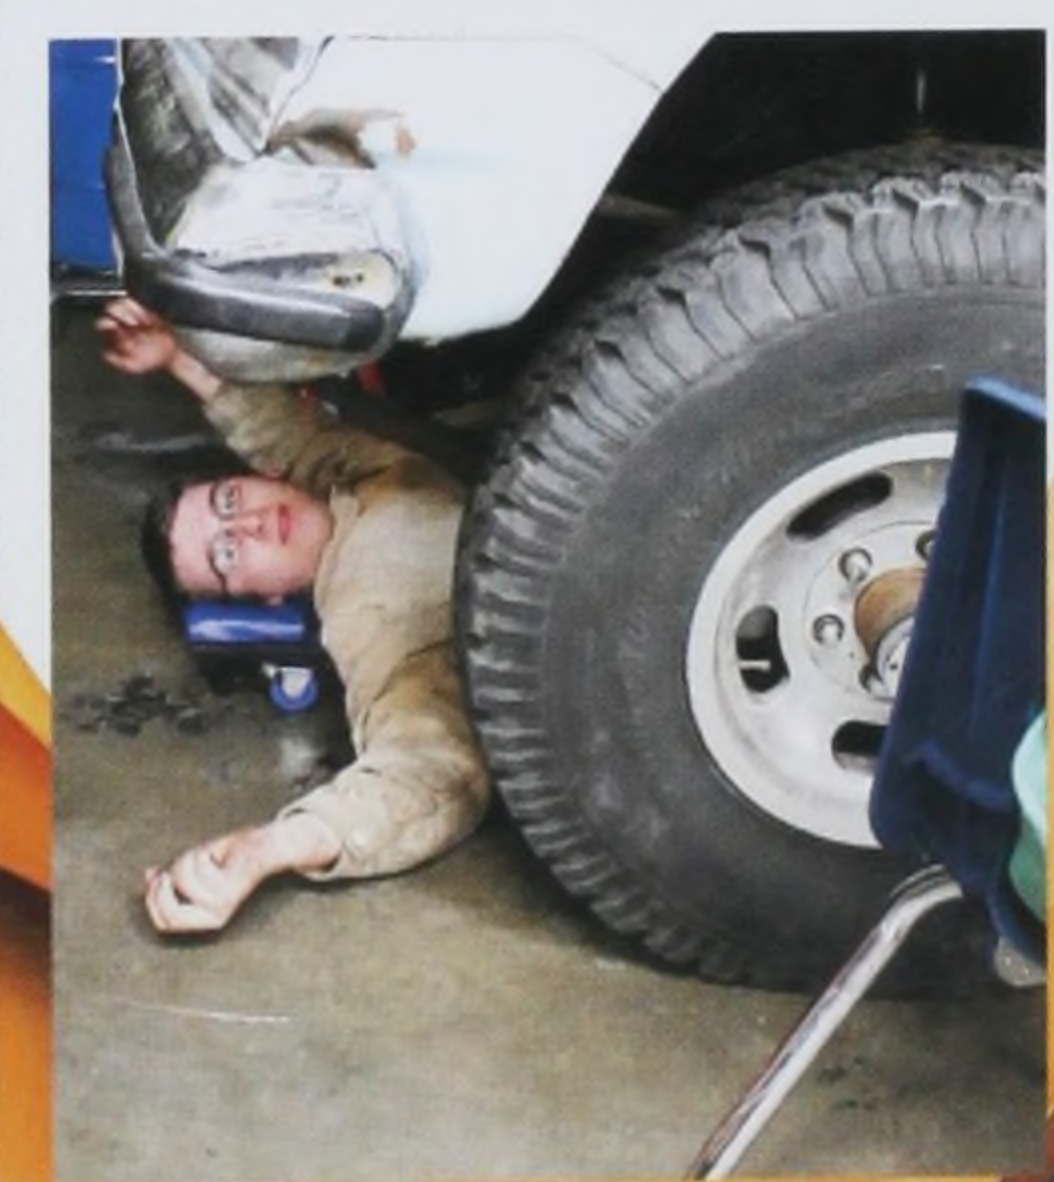

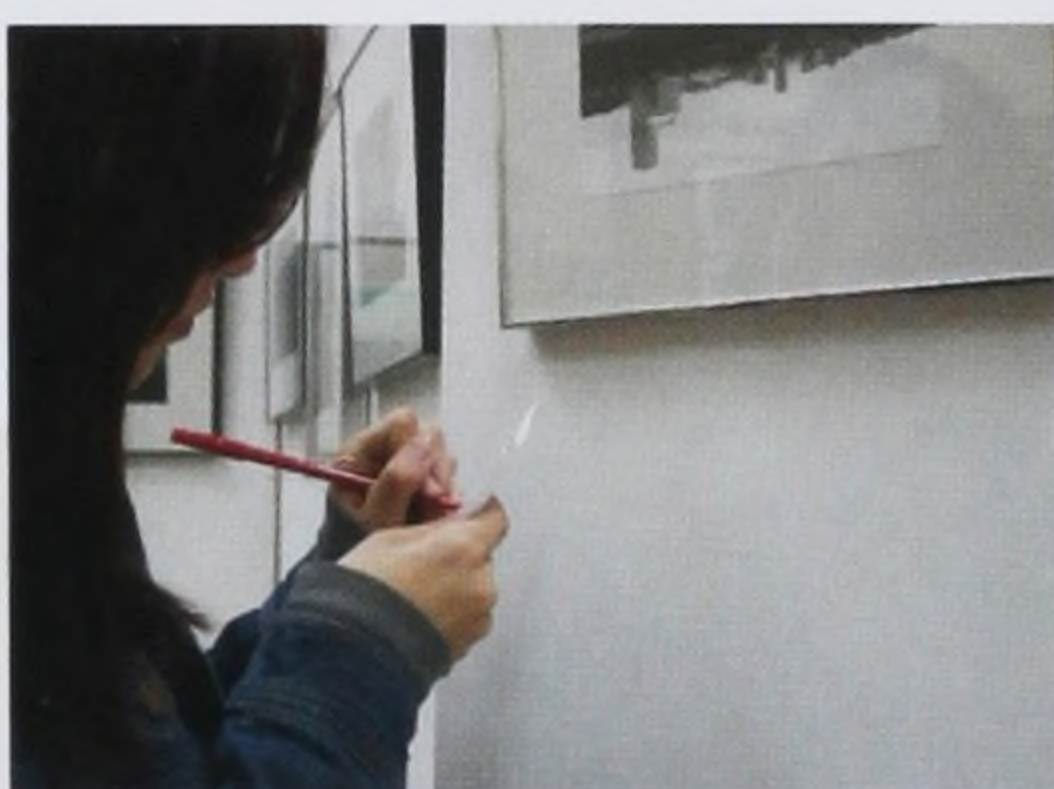

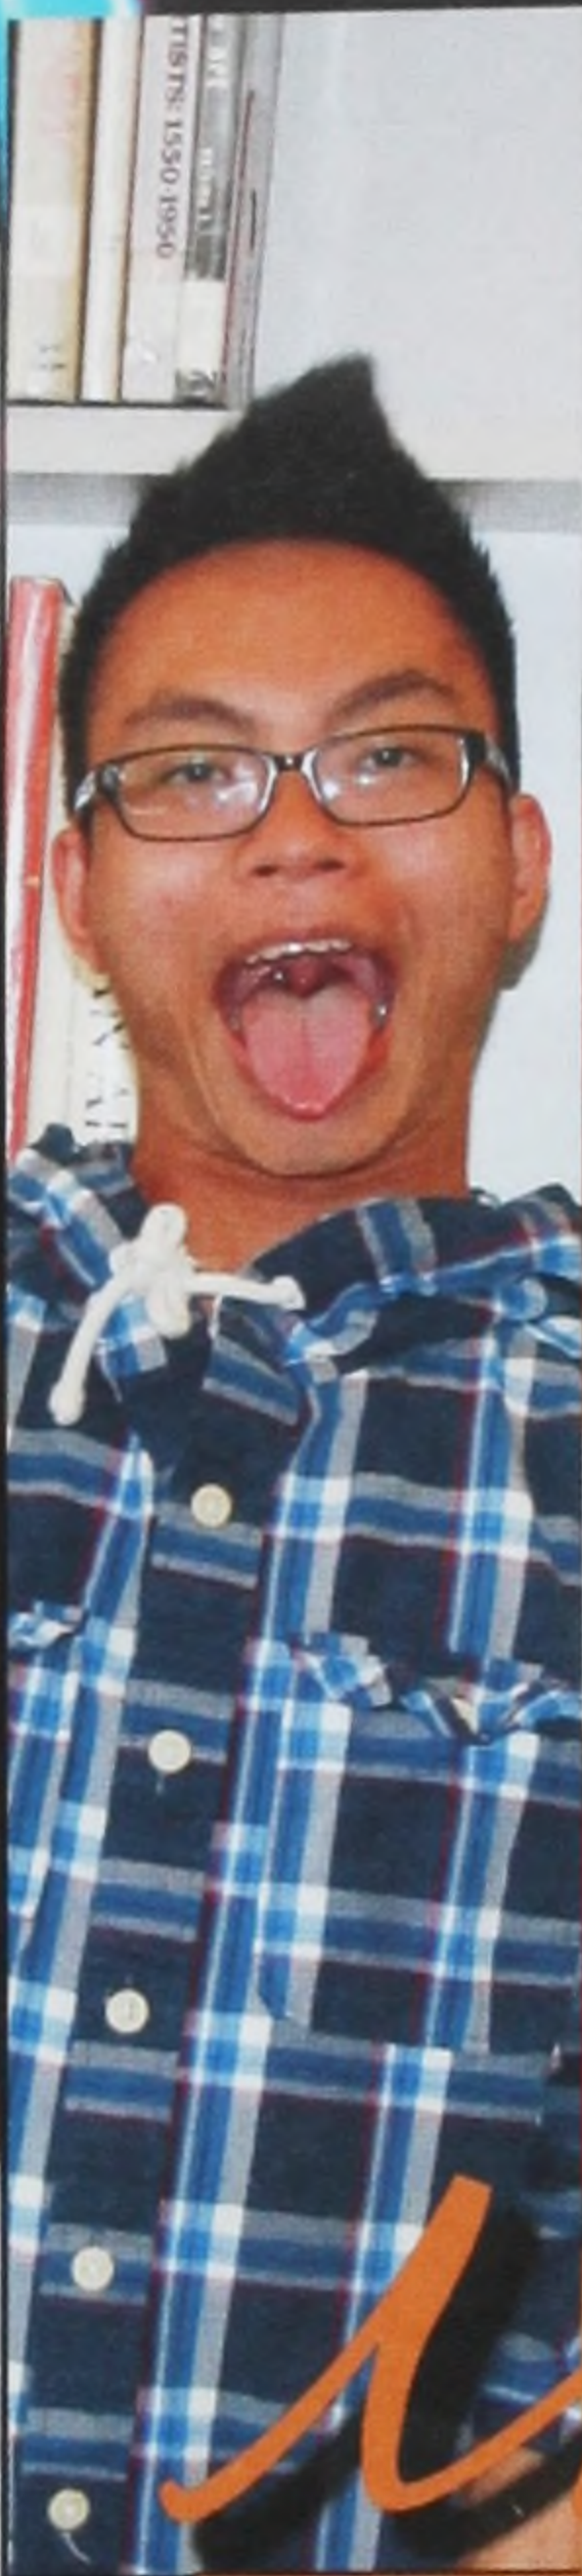

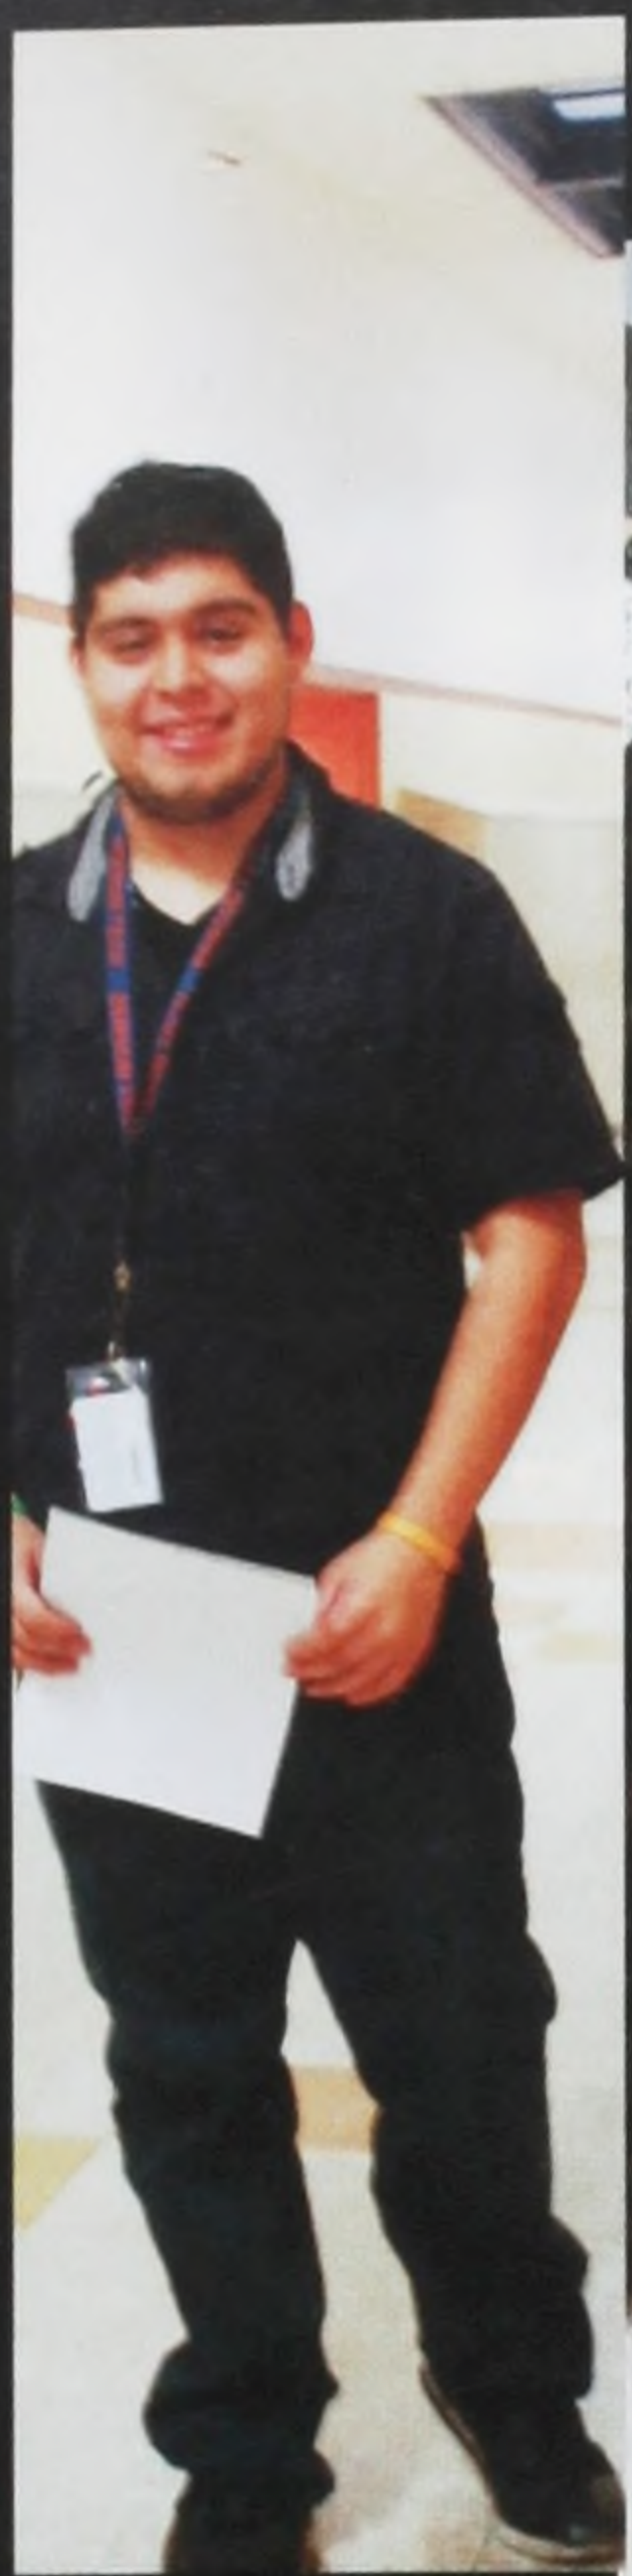

The 93rd Annual Tech Show is a two day event that showcased, not only the majors, but also our standard curriculum classes such as Spanish and English. This year's Tech Show was one of the most successful, bringing in one of the biggest crowds we've seen in a long time.

Many paths...

"We need to give each other the space to grow, to be ourselves, to exercise our diversity. We need to give each other space so that we may both give and receive such beautiful things as ideas, openness, dignity, joy, healing, and inclusion."

Nestaho Abdimarian

"I'm originally from Somalia. I've lived in America for seven years now. Even though I've changed a lot, I still enjoy celebrating holidays like Eid and Ramadan with friends and family here in Portland."

Jessica Nguyen

"I'm white and Vietnamese, but my mom raised me in the Asian tradition. I guess I've always identified with that in terms of what I eat and how I see myself culturally."

Not all Latinos are Mexican.
Not all Asians are Chinese.
Not all white people like rock n roll.
Not all black people like hip-hop.

Benson is one of the most diverse schools in the entire state. With a multitude of ethnicities walking our halls every day, if you're only seeing in black and white, then you're missing a huge part of the picture.

Does something look out of place here? It shouldn't. Gabe, in white, sprints down the field, playing for the Cleveland lacrosse team. A Warrior on the field, a Techman off.

One Sweet Ride (Below) When you've got a nice set of wheels, why not flaunt them? That's the idea Evan had, giving his new rig a test drive around the electric shops. After, of course, having fixed it up for Mr. Ryan's kids.

Fun in The Sun Surf, sun, and sand are not usually thoughts invoked by the phrase "Portland spring". But for these seniors, that's exactly what they had in mind. Quinton, Sean, Taylor, Ryan, Angela, and Jacob went on an adventure to Rockaway Beach, gathering around a fire during spring break.

Jumping For Joy Seniors Andrew, Stephanie, Kiet and Mariam taking some time to celebrate the return of the sun to Portland before heading out for one of their regular lunch adventures.

Spring Fun

"Spring is nature's way of saying, 'Let's party!'"

Robin Williams

Joey Wallberg

(Above) After being crowned Homecoming king at the beginning of the year, Joey has had a difficult time avoiding the paparazzi. Even in his major, he can't get any peace as he runs and hides from the camera.

(Below) Ever have a difficult time trying to convince someone it's your birthday? Imagine how Mimi must feel having her birthday on April 1st! Lucky for her, Thao and many other friends believe her and took time to celebrate her 18th birthday.

Mimi Ly & Thao Nguyen

Cheyenne Lanham

(Above) Sunshine just doesn't come around often enough in Portland. Some people ride their bikes or walks their dogs. Cheyenne, however, gives her two beloved ferrets time to romp in the fresh spring grass.

(Below) The crew, baywatch style, strolls along the beach during their spring break getaway, thankful that the weather could allow them to burn like lobsters. And yes...that is Sean Corrigan.

Benson Confessions

I am the one who put the hole in the wall in Manufacturing.

I take my naps in the locker room.

I still have feelings for my first boyfriend from Freshmen year... but he moved on.

I know why the guy my friend likes will never go out with her, and I can't tell her why.

I am going to marry Ms. Whitmore.

I was the one who pulled the fire alarm and pooped in the hallway during night school.

I dated a guy for like two months just because he had a cool car.

I think Mr. Smith is the best teacher.

I turned in one of my older brother's old papers for one of my English essays. And I got a C.

I farted in the principal's office while we were discussing detention.

CROSS COUNTRY

The men's Varsity team poses after Daniel, Jose, and Katherine's victory.

Dani finishes in first place!

Silas runs with confidence!

Coach Clark:

"We had a really young team This year, with lots of new runners, but we progressed as the year went on. at districts 15 out of 17 kid ran a personal bests. looking forward to next year."

Mathew prepares to finish his race.

Restum sprints to the finish!

Katie sprints ahead to get her spot in the front of the race!

Caleb finishes his race strong!

Erich sprints to finish his race!

Seniors

The seniors had a good run, this year.

The girls Team relaxes after a good season of cross country.

Captain Dani Soriano-Valencia
This crosscountry season was full of mud and pain, but it was also full of laughs and surprises. the best part was to see all my teammates be successful. pain is temporary and may last for minute or and hour or even a year. but evenutally it will subside and somthing will take it to place. If i quit however it will last forever.

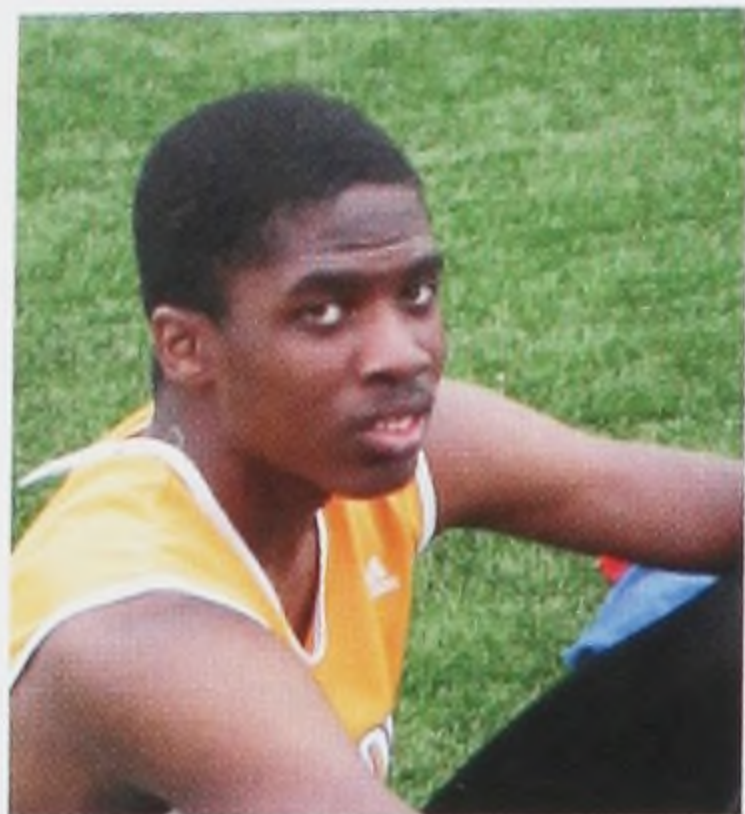

Captain Victor Tran
Cross Country will be the most memorable moment in my high school years. I enjoyed running everday with my amazing teammates. Thank you for accepting me as your captain and thank you for all the great memories.

Captain Katie Darke
Everyone think cross country runners are crazy in short you can say that we are. but the true is that we are decated. we are our outside rain or shine to push ourselves to the limits, to achive what we thought it was impossible. each struggle not only strengthens our physcial and mental capacities, but the bond between as well. so we are crazy after all- one big happy crazy family.

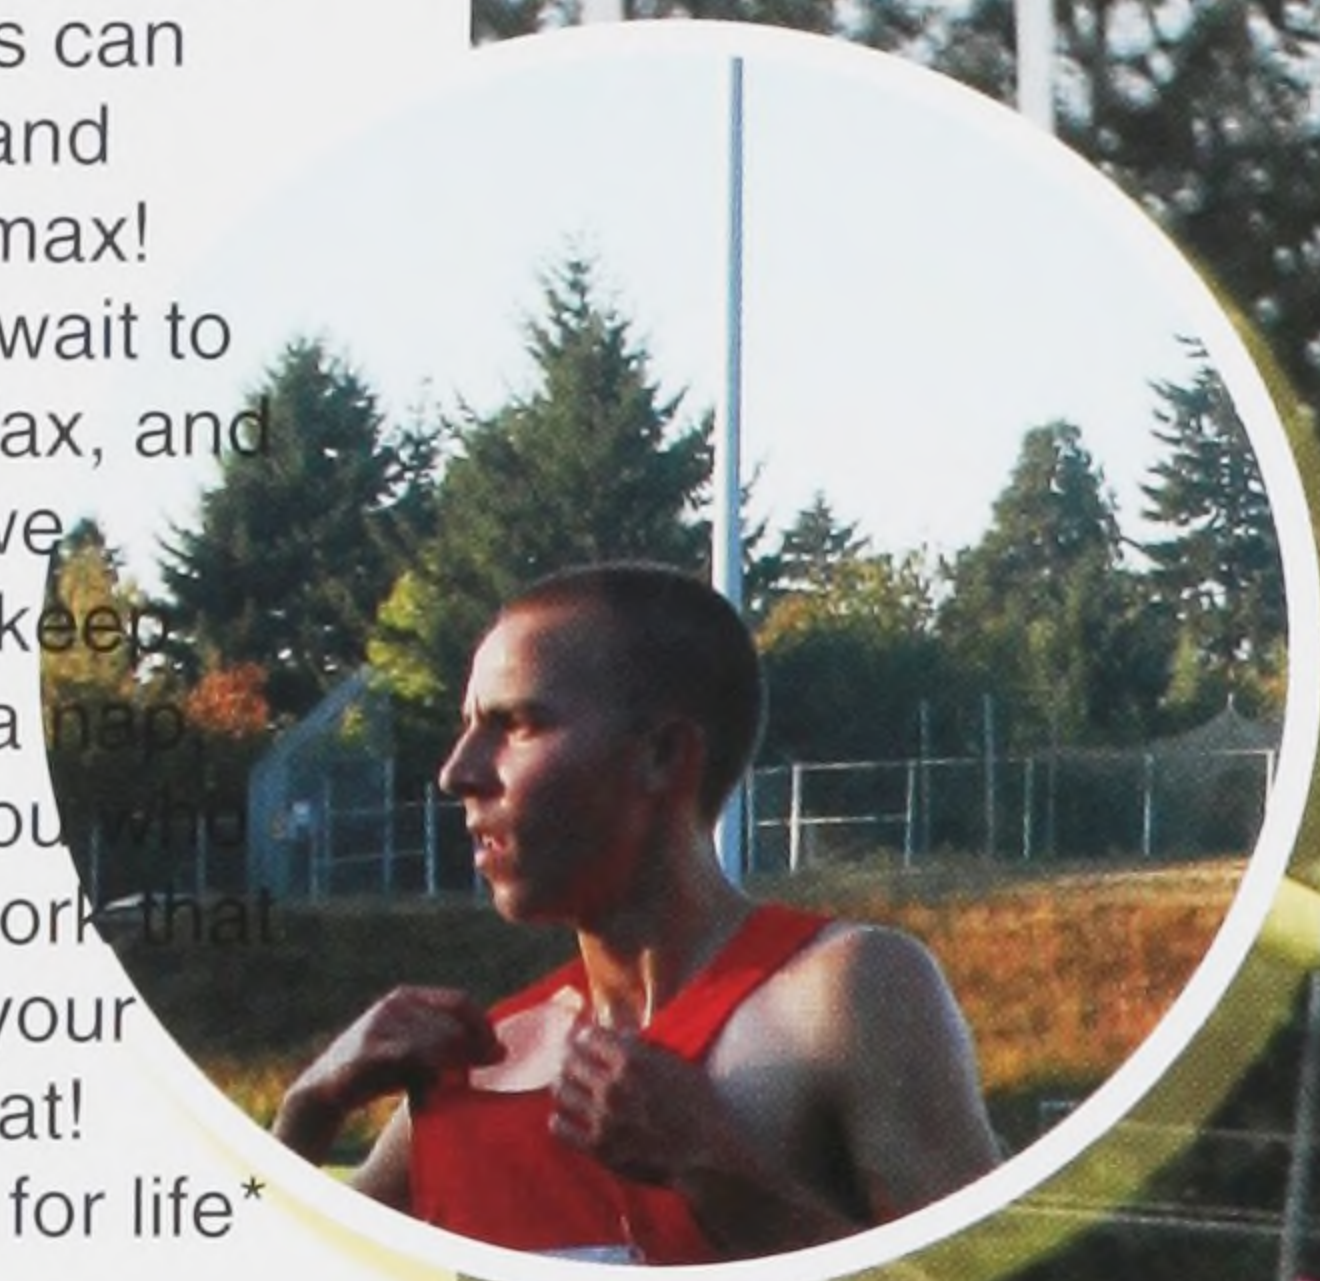

Track has been wack, but that's always expected with this pack. A bunch of dedicated athletes, who move way too fast. Coaches can be role models, and push you to the max! But really I can't wait to kick back and relax, and count the miles we slapped! You all keep running, I'll take a nap, and clap for all you who put in so much work that you collapse on your back! Amen to that!

Tickle monsters for life

Matthew Mattson, 12

Never look back, I kept my eyes on the finish line. No regrets for my last track season.

Devin Sweeting, 12

Track has made me the person I am. It has taught me discipline, hardwork, and dedication. I love my team and I am going to miss not doing track at Benson.

Cardeana Burton, 12

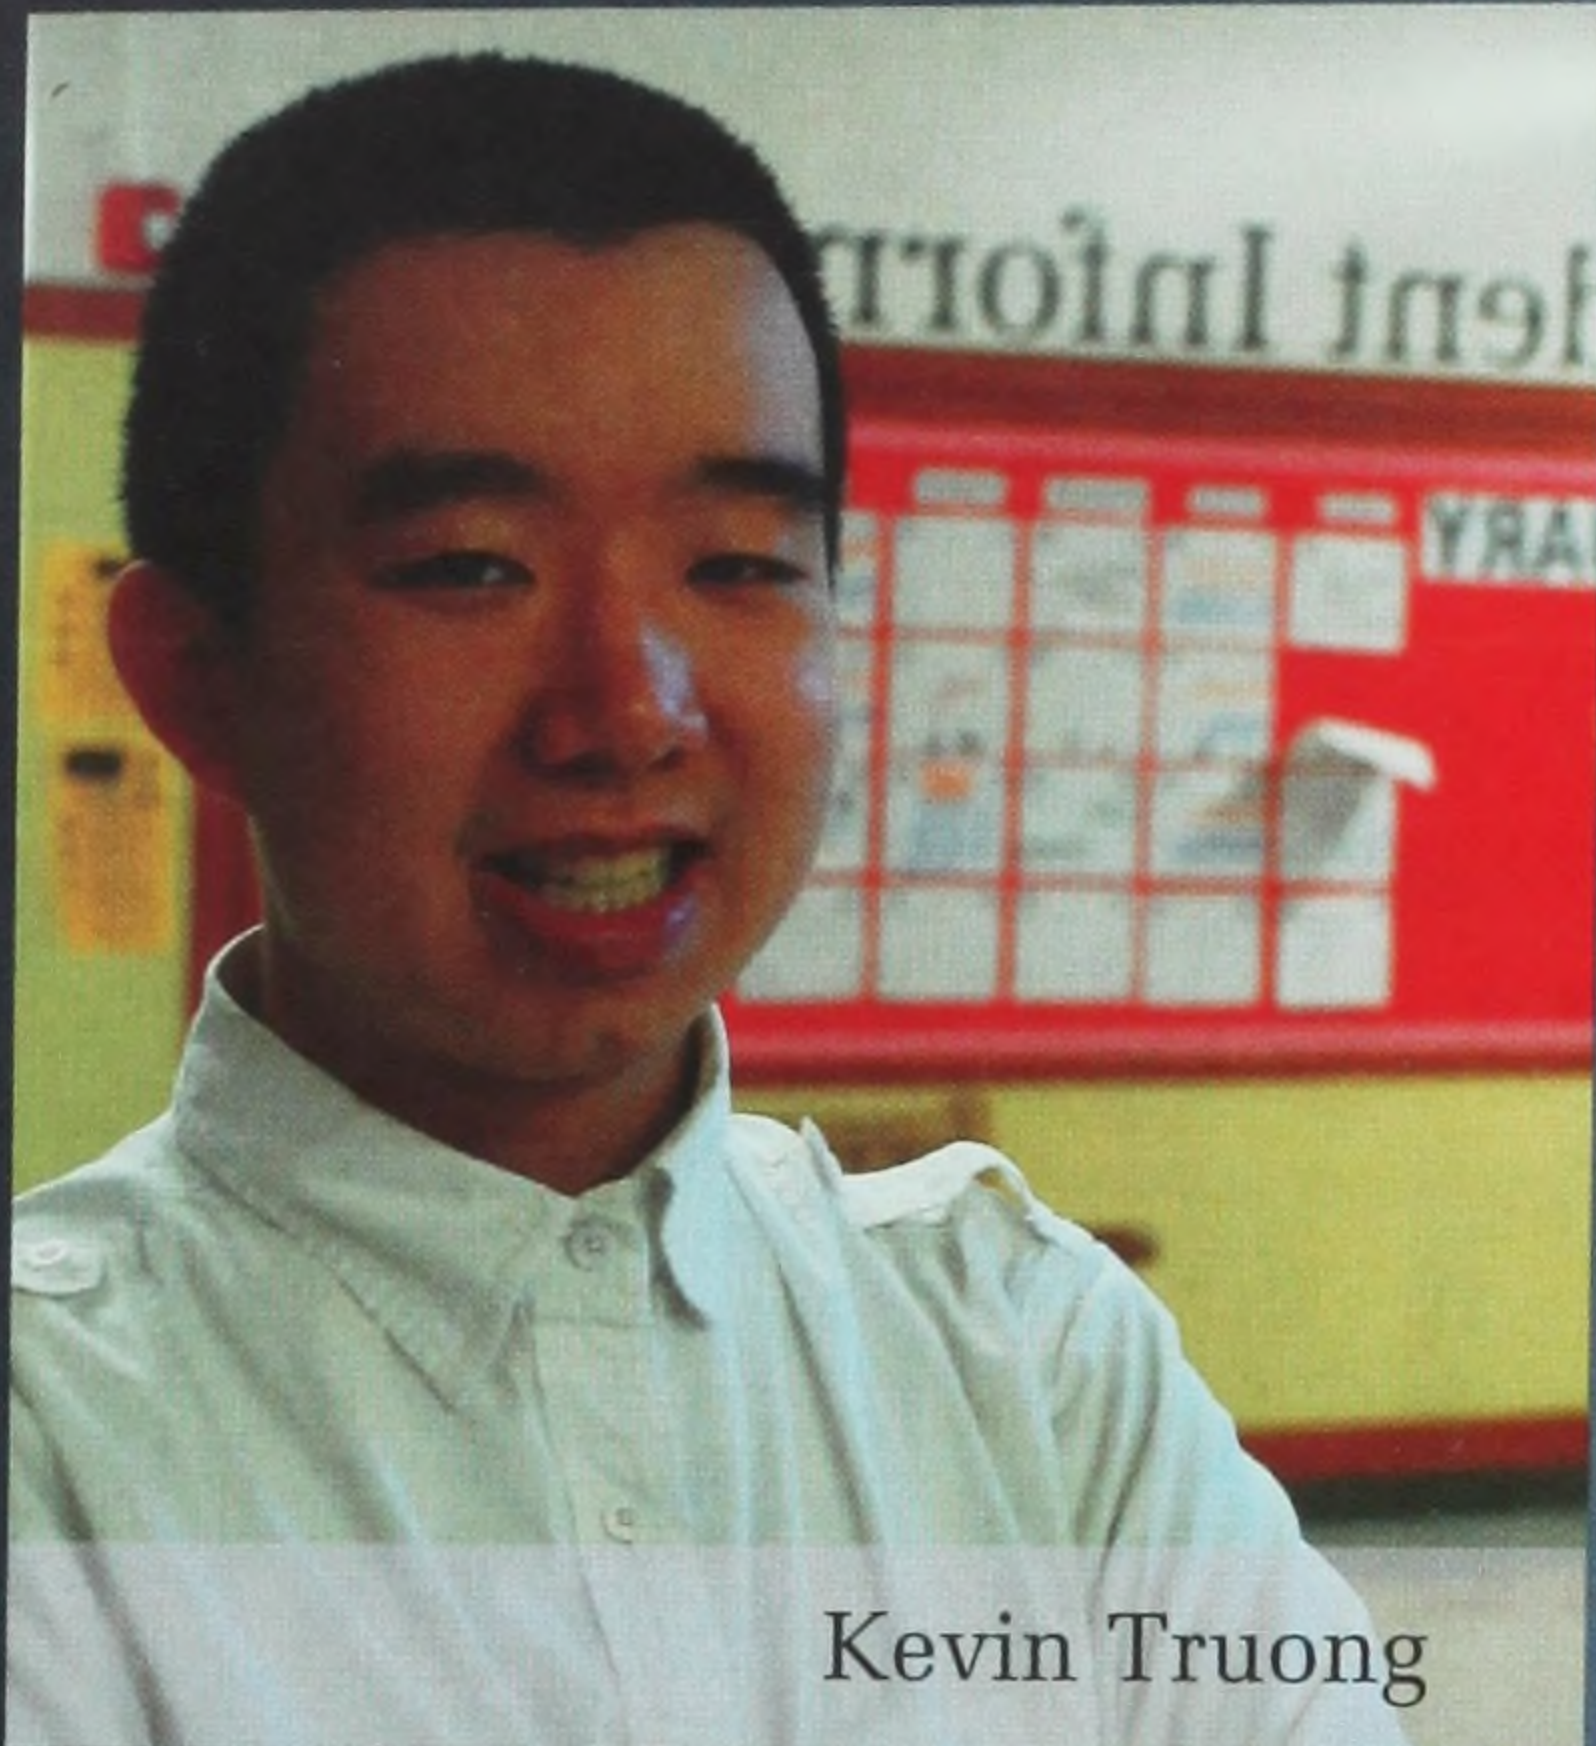

Track & Field

Coach McKenzie has helped our track team make our goals and achievements for this season. He is a wonderful coach and indispensable. I hope to work with him more next year.

Today will not be our last goodbye. But it's the day you open another chapter in your life. I love you guys so much, we're like the three musketeers but Asian LOL. I believe you will go far in life, best wishes! WT (Jasmin Ma, Jovi Asa)

~ Bre

Jessica, Mimi, Thao, Kevin N. and everybody else— thank you so much for showing me the ropes of high school. Your advice about which classes to take, different teachers, activities, clubs and places to eat meant so much to me.

Kevin T.— You've worked really hard. I hope you are successful.

—Mary Nguyen

To Cardeana - Will Miss you so much! You are frickin' hilarious. To Taylor - I will miss you so much, especially in basketball. To Barbie - I'll miss you and you better come back and visit!

~ Love, Risa Morad

Dear Amy Le, Ben Bui, Keighley Overbay, Zachary Bright, Kevin Troung: You guys are awesome! We'll always remember all of the good times we had with you guys at Ocean and Science bowl. You inspire us to try our best, and it is our goal to avenge you next year to avenge your deaths.

~ Sincerely Everyone else of Ocean Bowl

Mary and Umu, thank you so much for always brightening up my day! We better keep in touch! See you soon!
